

LOGO DESIGN LOVE

A guide to creating iconic brand identities

Second edition

David Airey

LOGODESIGNLOVE

A guide to creating iconic brand identities

Second edition

David Airey

Logo Design Love: A guide to creating iconic brand identities

Table of Contents

Contents

Introduction

Part I: The importance of brand identity

Chapter one: Were surrounded

Chapter two: Its the stories we tell

None genuine without this signature

A logoless company is a faceless man

Seen by millions

Only if the Queen agrees

Symbols transcend boundaries

Identity design as part of our language

Rethinking the importance of brand identity

Chapter three: Elements of iconic design

Keep it simple

Make it relevant

Incorporate tradition

Aim for distinction

Commit to memory

Think small

Focus on one thing

The seven ingredients of your signature dish

Remember that rules are made to be broken

Part II: The process of design

Table of Contents

Chapter four: Laying the groundwork

- Calming those nerves
- Brief, not abrupt
- Gathering preliminary information
- More detail
- A quick note on the decision-maker
- Give your client time and space
- But maintain the focus
- Study time
- Assembling the design brief
- A mission and some objectives hold the key
- Field research making a difference
- Bringing the details to life
- Culling the adjectives supplied by the client

Chapter five: Skirting the hazards of a redesign

- What are the reasons for rebranding?
- Squeezing too hard
- Answers often lie in focus groups
- From corporate to familial
- A little more fine-tuning?
- Unifying the elements
- Show some diplomacy

Chapter six: Pricing design

- Talk first, quote later

Chapter seven: From pencil to PDF

- Mind mapping
- The necessity of the sketchpad
- The Tenth Commandment
- Defining insurance

Table of Contents

Internationally recognized

No set time

Too many ideas

Form before color

The value of context

The pen is mightier than the mouse

Chapter eight: The art of the conversation

Deal with the decision-maker

#1: Conspire to help

#2: Avoid intermediation

#3: Take control

#4: Keep the committee involved

Under-promise, over-deliver

Swallow a little pride

Part III: Moving forward

Chapter nine: Staying motivated

Never stop learning

Be four years ahead

Make a difference

Step away from the computer

Do it for yourself

Create something new

Reflect on your beginnings

Show relentless desire

But don't overwork yourself

Keep asking questions

Start as you mean to go on

Find common ground

Use your deadlines

Table of Contents

Think laterally

Improve how you communicate

Manage your expectations

Always design

Follow your bliss

Step back

Chapter ten: Your questions answered

Originality trouble

Measuring designs return on investment

Rights of use

Communication breakdown

Sealing the deal

Overseas clients

How many concepts?

Friends and family

Revision rounds

Setting a schedule

Researching the competition

Worst client project

Who owns what?

Handling the workload

Chapter eleven: 31 practical logo design tips

1. Interview your client

2. Think clearly

3. Expect the unexpected

4. A logo doesnt need to show what a company does

5. A symbol isnt always necessary

6. Offer one thing to remember

7. Treasure your sketchpad

Table of Contents

8. Leave trends to the fashion industry
9. There's nothing wrong with using clichés
10. Work in black and white
11. Keep it relevant
12. Understand print costs
13. Preserve brand equity
14. Match the type to the symbol
15. Tag it
16. Offer a single-color version
17. Pay attention to contrast
18. Test at a variety of sizes
19. Reverse it
20. Turn it upside down
21. Don't neglect the substrate
22. Know enough about trademark registration
23. Don't be afraid of mistakes
24. Be flexible
25. A logo is just one small but important element
26. Remember, it's a two-way process
27. Differentiation is key
28. Exercise cultural awareness
29. Aid recognition
30. Give context
31. Make people smile

Chapter twelve: Beyond the logo

The delicious dream

Cause and effect

It's all in the details

You can't buy happiness, but you can buy tea

Table of Contents

Beneath the waterline

Recommended reading

Index Looking for something?

A

B

C

D

E

F

G

H

I

J

K

L

M

N

O

P

Q

R

S

T

U

V

W

Table of Contents

Y

Z