

the Adobe® photoshop® book

for digital photographers

New Riders

Scott Kelby
EDITOR, PHOTOSHOP USER MAGAZINE

VOICES THAT MATTER™

the Adobe® photoshop book

for digital photographers

Scott Kelby
EDITOR, PHOTOSHOP USER MAGAZINE

The Adobe Photoshop Book for Digital Photographers

Table of Contents

Cover

Title Page

Copyright Page

Table of Contents

Chapter 01: The Essentials of Camera Raw

How to Open JPEGs, TIFFs, and RAW Images in Camera Raw

If You Shoot in RAW, Start Here

Using Camera Raw Anytime During Your Editing

Three Ways to Set Your Image's White Balance

Seeing a Before/After in Camera Raw

Having Camera Raw Auto-Correct Your Photo

Setting Your Overall Exposure, Part One: Expanding Your Tonal Range

Setting Your Overall Exposure, Part Two: Setting the Overall Brightness

Fixing Flat-Looking Images by Adding Contrast

Dealing with Highlight Problems (Clipping)

Fixing Backlit Images

Enhancing Detail Using the Texture Slider

Adding Punch Using Clarity

The Difference Between Texture and Clarity

Making Your Colors Pop!

My Editing-Your-Images Cheat Sheet

Chapter 02: Camera Raw Beyond the Basics

Editing Multiple Photos at Once

Advanced Contrast Using Curves

Table of Contents

Capture Sharpening in Camera Raw
Creative Sharpening
Removing Spots, Dust, and Other Distracting Stuff
Camera Raw Can Show You Where the Spots Are Removing (Erasing) Distracting Things in Your Photo
Adjusting or Changing Ranges of Color
Removing Haze or Fog
Reducing Noise
Cropping and Straightening
Saving Edits as You Go, So You Can Experiment
Choosing How Your RAW Images Will Appear in Photoshop

Chapter 03: Masking Miracles

Five Important Things About Masking
Editing Your Main Subject
Better Looking Skies, Method 1: Sky Mask
Better Looking Skies, Method 2: Linear Gradient Mask
Better Looking Skies, Method 3: Masking Objects
Better Looking Skies, Method 4: Preserving Clouds Using a Luminance
Range Mask
Better Looking Skies, Method 5: Reducing Banding in a Sky Using Select Sky
What to Do If It Doesn't Work Perfectly
Four Really Helpful Things to Know Now About the Brush Masking Tool
Painting with Light (Also Known as Dodging & Burning)
The Brush's Awesome Auto Mask Feature
A Better Way to Reduce Noise
Painting White Balance
Editing Your Background
Adjusting an Individual Color Using a Color Range Mask
Selecting an Object That's Not Your Subject

Table of Contents

Five MORE Masking Things You'll Want to Know

Chapter 04: Correcting Lens Problems

One-Click Fixes for Some Common Lens Problems

DIY Fixes for Two of Those Lens Problems

If Things Are Leaning, Here's How to Make Them Upright

Guided Upright: If Auto Upright Didn't Do the Trick

Removing Colored Edge Fringe (Chromatic Aberrations)

Fixing Dark Corners (Vignetting)

Fixing Horizontal Perspective Issues

Chapter 05: Working with Layers

Getting Started with Layers

Blending Two or More Images (Intro to Layer Masks)

Getting Started with Layer Blend Modes

Five Layers Things to Know Before We Move On

Adding Drop Shadows and Other Layer Effects

Resizing Something on a Layer

Organizing Your Layers

Adjustment Layers

Smart Filter Layers

Making a Simple Composite

Four MORE Important Layers Techniques

Chapter 06: Making Selections

Having Photoshop Select Things for You

Having Photoshop Select the Sky for You

Selecting Objects by Just Pointing

Manual Selections: Rectangular or Round Areas

Selecting by Color and Tone with the Magic Wand Tool

Softening the Edges of Your Selections

Quick & Easy Selections with the Quick Selection Tool

Saving Your Selections

Table of Contents

Selecting Hair Like a Boss!

Selecting by Color (or by Highlights or Shadows)

Removing a White Background Behind a Logo

Chapter 07: Black & White, Duotones & More

Apply a Look Using Creative Profiles

Instant Black & White Conversion

Converting to Black and White

Quadtone for Richer Black-and-Whites

Color Grading

Duotones Made Crazy Easy

Colorizing a B&W Photo (Using a Neural Filter)

The Hidden Photographic Toning Looks

Fashion Toning Using LUTs

Creating Your Own Custom Presets

Chapter 08: Cropping & Resizing

Cropping Your Images

Fixing Corner Gaps

Creating Your Own Custom Crop Tools

Custom Sizes for Photographers

Resizing Photos

Making Really Big Enlargements

Resizing and Saving a Bunch of Images the Automated Way

Two Quick Ways to Straighten Crooked Photos

Resizing an Image You Moved to a Different Document

Making Your Image a Specific Size Without Stretching or Otherwise Destroying It

Chapter 09: Retouching Portraits

Simple Skin Smoothing

Smoothing Skin Tones

Automated Skin Smoothing

Contouring the Face by Dodging & Burning

Table of Contents

- Reducing Wrinkles
- Removing Hot Spots
- Removing Blemishes
- Retouching Eyes
- Fixing a Closed or Lazy Eye
- Dealing with Deep-Set Eye Sockets
- Reducing Dark Circles
- Slimming Your Subject
- Retouching Teeth
- Using Liquify to Reshape, Push, and Pull
- Adjusting Facial Features Using AI

Chapter 10: Removing Distracting Stuff

- Getting Rid of Reflections in Glasses
- Removing Edge Glows
- Removing Simple Stuff Using Content-Aware Fill
- When Content-Aware Fill Needs Help
- Removing Telephone Poles, Wires, and Power Lines
- Removing Bigger Stuff Using the Patch Tool
- Removing Tourists
- Flipping Things to Hide Stuff
- If Healing Doesn't Work, Clone Over It
- Fixing Edge Gaps

Chapter 11: Photoshop Effects

- Creating Reflections
- Sky Replacement
- Turning On the Lights Early
- Adding Light Hits
- Adding a Background Light
- Adding Drama with a Spotlight
- Adding Texture to Portrait Backgrounds

Table of Contents

- Creating Beams of Light
- Creating a Single Light Beam
- Blurring the Background Behind Your Subject
- Dreamy Soft Focus Effect
- Creating Panoramas
- Black & White Fine Art Architectural Look
- Sun Flare Effect
- Creating an HDR Image
- Creating Wet Streets & Cobblestones
- Darkening Outside Edges

Chapter 12: Sharpening Techniques

- The Three Stages of Sharpening
- If You Shoot in RAW, Sharpening Starts in Camera Raw
- Creative Sharpening
- Output Sharpening (or Main Sharpening)
- The Other Way We Do Output Sharpening
- Spot Sharpening
- Smarter Sharpening Using Smart Sharpen
- Mega Sharpening (AKA: High Pass Sharpening)

Index