

STUDY SKILLS FOR ART, DESIGN & MEDIA STUDENTS

Stewart Mann

Study Skills for Art, Design and Media Students

Study Skills for Art, Design and Media Students

Table of Contents

Cover

Study Skills for Art, Design and Media Students

Brief contents

Contents

Dedication

Foreword

How to use this book

Acknowledgements

Part 1 Preparing for Higher Education

Chapter 1: Before university application and arrival

Application for higher education

Before joining

What to expect differences between school or college and university

Your aspirations

Joining instructions

Course information

Students with disabilities and learning difficulties

Arriving at university

Induction and orientation sessions

How degree courses are organised credit-based systems

The university year and week

Communication staff and you

Chapter 2: How you learn

Table of Contents

Learning to learn
Know yourself as a learner
Self-evaluation: your ambitions your choices
My approach: my motivations
How I work
Ideas
Organisation
Time management
Research
Practical making
Communication skills
Personal profile and action plan

Part 2 Day-to-day studies

Chapter 3: Gathering information

Lectures
Note taking
What you need to read and how much
Ways to improve your reading
Read with a purpose
Reading to understand
Information sources and intellectual property
Types of sources
Electronic databases
Your learning resource centre/library

Chapter 4: Approaches to project work

Art, design and media work the process
The brief
Break down the project requirements
Clarify the problem
Group work
Ideas development creative and critical thinking

Table of Contents

Brainstorming

organisation and planning

Project development

Chapter 5: Practical projects

The practical brief

Practical projects where and how you work

Technical teaching and workshops

Equipment and materials

Working with people

Chapter 6: Academic and written assignments

Writing: why is it important?

How to improve your writing

Choice of language

Writing for note and sketchbooks

Academic writing

Writing a good essay

Procedure for writing an essay

Evidence, citation, referencing, plagiarism

Bibliography

Writing reports

Writing your brief

Chapter 7: Assessment, crits, presentations

Stages in the assessment process formative and summative

Self and peer assessment

Feedback crits

Selecting work for assessment

Learning outcomes and assessment criteria

Levels of learning

Making use of the assessment process

Chapter 8: Preparing for the future work experience and careers

Table of Contents

Your degree programme and the future
In-course professional development
Graduate employment
Real-life projects for outside organisations work experience work placements
Marketing yourself
Your creative CV information required
Job applications and interviews

Part 3 An introduction to critical, cultural and contextual studies

Chapter 9: Critical, cultural and contextual studies

Why critical, cultural and contextual studies?
Starting points looking at other peoples work
Key ideas and thinkers
Modernism and postmodernism

Chapter 10: Critical approaches

Structuralism and post-structuralism
Theoretical and critical models
Theoretical and critical models applications
Theoretical and critical models authors and critics to research

Chapter 11: Theories and methods of analysis

The theory of the sign
Semiotic analysis
The theory of codes
myth
Intertextuality
Story telling and narrative
Content analysis

Chapter 12: Content, genre, physical context

Table of Contents

Content and form

Styles, movements, genre

Physical context

Chapter 13: Being critical what to look for

A summary of the ideas that critics and academics seek to apply

Part 4 Specialist media

Chapter 14: Art, design and media meanings and differences

Ideas, theories and applications

Chapter 15: Contemporary applied arts

Ideas, theories and contexts

Contemporary applied arts practice

Contemporary applied arts education

Chapter 16: Fashion design

Ideas, theories and contexts

Fashion practice

Fashion education

Chapter 17: Fine art

Ideas, theories and contexts

Fine art practice

Fine art education

Chapter 18: Graphic design and illustration

Ideas, theories and contexts

Graphic design and illustration practice

Graphic design and illustration education

Chapter 19: Interior and spatial design

Ideas, theories and contexts

Interior and spatial design practice

Interior and spatial design education

Chapter 20: Media

Ideas, theories and contexts

Table of Contents

Media industries and practices

Media and film studies education

Animation industries

Animation and games art education

Production of a film/video/animated film

TV production

Digital animation

Film

Chapter 21: Photography

Ideas, theories and contexts

Photographic practice

Photographic education

Photographic projects

Chapter 22: Product and industrial design

Ideas, theories and contexts

Product design and industrial design practice

Product design and industrial design education

Appendices

Appendix 1: Art, design and media glossary

Appendix 2: Educational glossary

Appendix 3: Correct English the mechanics of language

Appendix 4: Tackling an essay project brief

Appendix 5: Essay analysis assess these examples

Index