

Second Edition

KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT

AN INTEGRATED APPROACH

Ashok Jashapara

Knowledge Management

Knowledge Management

Table of Contents

Front Cover

Knowledge Management

Brief contents

Contents

Preface

About the author

Authors acknowledgements

Publishers acknowledgements

Part 1 The Nature of Knowledge

Introduction to knowledge management

Learning outcomes

Management issues

Links to other chapters

Opening vignette: Life in an interconnected world

Knowledge management: an integrated approach

Part 1: The nature of knowledge

Part 2: Leveraging knowledge

Part 3: Creating knowledge

Part 4: Knowledge artefacts

Part 5: Mobilising knowledge

Introduction

The knowledge economy

What is knowledge management?

Is knowledge management a fad?

What are the differences between data, information, knowledge and wisdom?

Data

Table of Contents

Information

Knowledge

Wisdom

Early history of knowledge management: oral tradition to cuneiform

Knowledge management in ancient Greece and Rome

Management of knowledge in monastic and cathedral libraries

Paradigm shift from print to a digital age

Case study: Ernst & Young (US)

Summary

Questions for further thought

Further reading

References

The nature of knowing

Learning outcomes

Management issues

Links to other chapters

Opening vignette: Business must learn from the new tribe

Introduction

What is knowledge? Philosophers from Plato to Wittgenstein

Plato

Aristotle

Descartes

Locke

Hume

Kant

Hegel

Pragmatists

Phenomenology and existentialism

Wittgenstein

Contemporary philosophers: Ryle, Polanyi and Macmurray

Burrell and Morgans framework on philosophical paradigms

Competing philosophical positions in knowledge management: positivism,

Table of Contents

constructivism, postmodernism and critical realism

The taxonomic perspective of knowledge

The process-based perspective of knowing

The practice-based perspective of knowledge and knowing

Case study: World Bank (US)

Summary

Further reading

Questions for further thought

Further reading

References

Part 2 Leveraging Knowledge

Intellectual capital

Learning outcomes

Management issues

Links to other chapters

Opening vignette: A little knowledge is deadly dangerous

Introduction

What is intellectual capital?

History of intellectual capital

Problems of measuring organisational performance

Frameworks of intellectual capital

Human and social capital

Organisational capital

Intellectual property and smart patents

Financial reporting of intellectual capital

Intellectual capital as a narrative

Knowledge auditing in practice

Case study: Infosys (India)

Summary

Questions for further thought

Further reading

References

Table of Contents

Strategic management perspectives

- Learning outcomes
- Management issues
- Links to other chapters
- Opening vignette: A hunger for knowledge is Chinas real secret weapon
- Introduction
- Strategic management: schools of thought
- Industrial organisation tradition
- Excellence and turnaround
- Institutionalist perspective
- Resource-based view of the firm
- Information systems strategy
- Developing a knowledge management strategy
- Innovation and personalisation strategies
- Case study: Unilever (UK/Netherlands)
- Summary
- Questions for further thought
- Further reading
- References

Part 3 Creating Knowledge

Organisational learning

- Learning outcomes
- Management issues
- Links to other chapters
- Opening vignette: recruits fired up by virtual rivalry
- Introduction
- Individual learning
- Team learning
- Drivers of organisational learning: success or failure?
- Single-loop and double-loop learning
- Sensemaking
- Organisational learning frameworks

Table of Contents

Knowledge acquisition
Information distribution
Information interpretation
Organisational memory
Unlearning
Organisational routines
Dynamic capabilities
Absorptive capacity
Politics and organisational learning
Critique of organisational learning
Case study: Toyota (Japan)
Summary
Questions for further thought
Further reading
References

The learning organisation

Learning outcomes
Management issues
Links to other chapters
Opening vignette: Teaching materials: From pen and paper to wikis and video
Introduction
US contribution: the fifth discipline
UK contribution: the learning company
Japanese contribution: the knowledge-creating company
The competitive learning organisation
Power, politics and the learning organisation
Empirical research and the learning organisation
The learning organisation and knowledge management
Case study: Honda (Japan)
Summary
Questions for further thought
Further reading

Table of Contents

References

Part 4 Knowledge Artefacts

Knowledge management tools: component technologies

Learning outcomes

Management issues

Links to other chapters

Opening vignette: Business starts to take Web 2.0 tools seriously

Introduction

Organising knowledge tools

Ontology and taxonomy

Capturing knowledge tools

Cognitive mapping tools

Information-retrieval tools

Search engines

Agent technology

Personalisation

Evaluating knowledge

Case-based reasoning (CBR)

Online analytical processing (OLAP)

Knowledge discovery in databases data mining

Machine-based learning

Sharing knowledge

Internet, intranets and extranets

Security of intranets

Text-based conferencing

Web 2.0 platform

Conversational media: Blogs

Syndication and RSS feeds

Mashups

Wikis

Online social networks

3-D virtual worlds

Table of Contents

Groupware tools
Videoconferencing
Skills directories: expertise yellow pages
E-learning
Storing and presenting knowledge
Data warehouses
Visualisation
Case study: Royal Dutch Shell (Netherlands/UK)
Summary
Questions for further thought
Further reading
References

Knowledge management systems

Learning outcomes
Management issues
Links to other chapters
Opening vignette: Decision-making software in the fast lane
Introduction
Systems thinking
Drivers of KM systems: quality management processes
Deming and Juran
Total quality management (TQM)
Business process re-engineering (BPR)
Lean production
Document management systems
Decision support systems
Group support systems
Executive information systems
Workflow management systems
Customer relationship management systems
Economics of KM systems
Case study: Tata Consultancy Services (India)

Table of Contents

Summary

Questions for further thought

Further reading

References

Part 5 Mobilising Knowledge

Enabling knowledge contexts and networks

Learning outcomes

Management issues

Links to other chapters

Opening vignette: Building bridges for success

Introduction

Understanding organisational culture and climate

Norms, artefacts and symbols

Values, beliefs, attitudes and assumptions

Typologies of organisational culture

Measuring organisational culture

Description of the twelve OCI styles

Creating knowledge-sharing cultures

Cultural stickiness: developing communities of practice

Knowledge across organisational boundaries

Case study: Fluor (United States)

Summary

Questions for further thought

Further reading

References

Implementing knowledge management

Learning outcomes

Management issues

Links to other chapters

Opening vignette: Box clever and keep your star performers happy

Introduction

The nature of change

Table of Contents

Personal response to change
Leadership and change
Change management strategies
Gaining commitment for change
Employee involvement
Training and development
Reward and recognition
Cultural change management
Politics of change
Case study: Woods Bagot (Australia)
Summary
Questions for further thought
Further reading
References

Epilogue Knowledge management

Epilogue

Introduction
Wrestling with knowledge: some reflections
Knowledge management is there an optimal approach?
Organisational gymnastics: balancing learning with routines and dynamic capabilities
Knowledge management between nations
Institutionalist perspective and the knowledge-based view of the firm
Communities of practice
Personal knowledge management
Knowledge management between nations
Concluding remarks
Further reading
References

Glossary

Index

Back Cover

Table of Contents