

INTERNATIONAL FINANCE

A PRACTICAL PERSPECTIVE

Adrian Buckley

International Finance

Visit the International Finance Companion Website at www.pearsoned.co.uk/buckley to find valuable student learning material including:

- Multiple choice questions to help test your understanding
- A mock exam to put your learning into practice
- Additional chapters and extended topics
- An online glossary to explain key terms
- Flashcards to help you prepare for exams

International Finance: A Practical Perspective

Table of Contents

Cover

International finance

Brief contents

Contents

Guided tour

Preface

Acknowledgements

Part A essential background

Introduction

What do bankers sell?

Banks in general

Commercial banks

Investment banks

Bank holding companies

Glass-steagall act

Central banks

Asset-liability mismatch

Offshore money a.k.a. eurodollars

International monetary fund (imf)

World bank

Bank for international settlements

World trade organization

Facts about the foreign exchange markets

Financial crisis 20078

Summary

The international monetary system

Table of Contents

- The gold standard
- The bretton woods system
- International reserves
- The role of gold up to 1
- The second amendment
- Exchange rate arrangements
- The european single currency the euro
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

Part B Foreign exchange

Exchange rates: the basic equations

- Foreign exchange markets
- Some basic relationships
- Interest rates and exchange rates
- Exchange rates and inflation rates
- Interest rates and inflation rates
- Taylor rule
- Changes in the spot rate and the forward discount
- Interest rate differentials and changes in the spot exchange rate
- Purchasing power parity applied
- Big mac purchasing power parity
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

Foreign exchange markets

- The players
- Methods of quotation
- Forward contracts and quotations
- Spot settlement
- Forward value dates
- Main purpose of the forward market
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

Table of Contents

The balance of payments

- The essence of international trade
- The balance of payments and foreign exchange rates
- Balance of payments accounting
- Forecasting exchange rates and the balance of payments
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

Theories and empiricism on exchange rate movements

- Inflation and interest rate differentials
- The balance of payments approach
- The monetary approach
- Overshooting the dornbusch model
- The portfolio balance theory
- The role of news
- Chartism
- The efficient markets hypothesis
- Empiricism and purchasing power parity
- Empiricism and the fisher effect
- Empiricism and the international fisher effect
- Empiricism and interest rate parity
- Empiricism and expectations theory
- Empiricism and foreign exchange market efficiency
- The carry trade a.k.a. uncovered interest arbitrage
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

Definitions of foreign exchange risk

- Transaction exposure
- Translation exposure
- Economic exposure
- Accounting for financial market derivatives
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

Table of Contents

Test bank 1

Exercises

Multiple choice questions

Part C Hedging

Does foreign exchange exposure matter?

Transaction exposure

Economic exposure

Translation exposure

Forecasting exchange rates

Summary

End of chapter questions

Principles of exposure management

The essence of hedging

Why hedge anyway?

What does exposure management aim to achieve?

The arguments against corporate hedging

The arguments for corporate hedging

Information for exposure management

What kind of foreign exchange exposure is significant?

The transaction exposure information system

Histogramming

Reinvoicing vehicles

Strategies for exposure management

Economic exposure revisited

Macroeconomic exposure

Value at risk

Risk management models and the normal distribution

Summary

End of chapter questions

Internal techniques of exposure management

Netting

Table of Contents

- Matching
- Leading and lagging
- Pricing policy
- Asset and liability management
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

External techniques of exposure management

- Forward markets
- Trading purpose of the forward market
- Short-term borrowing
- Discounting foreign-currency-denominated bills receivable
- Factoring foreign-currency-denominated receivables
- Currency overdrafts
- Exchange risk guarantees
- Counterparty risk
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

Test bank 2

- Exercises
- Questions relating to Press Cutting tB
- Multiple choice questions

Part D Derivatives

Swaps

- Swaps the basics
- Interest rate swaps
- Calculation of interest
- Currency swaps
- Assessing risk in swaps
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

Financial futures and foreign exchange

Table of Contents

Financial futures in general

Currency contracts

Hedging a borrowing

Basis risk

Use of currency futures market

Using currency futures in corporate hedging

Summary

End of chapter questions

Options

Call options

Put options

Writing options

Reading the Financial Times

Combinations of options

Valuing options

An option pricing formula

An option pricing table

Summary

End of chapter questions

Currency options

How currency option markets work

Currency option strategies

Average rate option

Hedging a currency option

Option pricing models

Option pricing models for stocks and currencies: The empirical evidence

Corporate use of currency options

Dealing with the dollar retailers produce some fancy moves to cover their exposure

Summary

End of chapter questions

Interest rate risk

The term structure of interest rates

Table of Contents

- Interest rate exposure
- Forward rate agreements
- Interest rate futures
- Interest rate swaps
- Interest rate options
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

Financial engineering

- Forward contracts
- Option contracts
- Some financial instruments
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

Part E Financial crisis 20078

Credit default swaps

- What are they?
- How do credit default swaps work?
- Drivers of the CDS market
- Correlations and credit ratings
- The credit guarantee
- The unwinding
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

The financial crisis of 20078 : a synopsis

- The good times
- New models of lending
- The time bomb ticks
- The time bomb explodes
- Why? oh why did no-one see it coming?
- Escape
- The eurozones problems

Table of Contents

Optimum currency area

Sovereign debt crises

Summary

End of chapter questions

Test bank 3

Exercises

Questions on Press Cutting 15.1

Multiple choice questions

Part F International capital budgeting

The internationalisation process

Foreign direct investment

The sequential process

Market imperfections

Transaction cost theory

Internalisation and firm-specific advantages

Location-specific advantages

The product life cycle

The eclectic theory

International joint ventures

International acquisitions

Globalisation

Game theory and international strategy

The new trade theory

Summary

End of chapter questions

Exchange controls and corporate tax in international investment

Exchange controls

Profits repatriation

Circumventing profit repatriation restrictions

Other techniques of unblocking funds

International corporate taxation

Table of Contents

Taxation of uk multinationals
Multicurrency management centres
Co-ordination centres
Foreign exchange rate strategy
Summary
End of chapter questions

The international capital budgeting framework

The international complications
NPV or APV?
Foreign investment and the cost of capital
The basic model
Empirical studies of international investment appraisal
Summary
End of chapter questions

The international capital budgeting model

International project appraisal
Taxation
Project evaluation with no exchange controls
Growth opportunities a.k.a. real operating options
Valuing real operating options
Project evaluation with exchange controls
Debtequity swaps
Sensitivity analysis
Summary
End of chapter questions

International investment: what discount rate?

The original us evidence
The new international evidence
Mean reversion
The equity risk premium
The international risk premium
Gains from international diversification

Table of Contents

The international capital asset pricing model

Emerging markets

Summary

End of chapter questions

Country risk analysis and political risk

Country risk analysis

Sources of country risk

Measuring country risk

Political risk

The measurement of political risk

Managing political risk

Post-expropriation policies

Political risk analysis in international capital budgeting

Summary

End of chapter questions

International capital budgeting: the practicalities

Net present value and adjusted present value

Overseas project appraisal: alpha NV

The olifan project with no home tax on remittance

Summary

End of chapter questions

Test bank 4

Exercises

Multiple choice questions

Part G International financing

Financing the multinational and its overseas subsidiaries

The international financing choice

Minimisation of global taxes

Managing risk

Financial market distortions

The multinationals capital structure

Table of Contents

Political risk
Exchange control risk
Currency risk
Losses earned by subsidiaries
Intercompany credit
Taxation effects
Dividend policy
Other methods of profit transfer
Parent company guarantees
Partly owned subsidiaries
The advantages of borrowing internationally
The risks of borrowing internationally
Foreign currency financing decisions
Summary
End of chapter questions

Financing international trade and minimising credit risk

Cash with order
Open account
Documentation in foreign trade
Bills of exchange
Documentary letters of credit trading
Government assistance schemes
Sources of export finance
Forfaiting
Countertrade
Summary
End of chapter questions

Practical problems in hedging

Contingent, or pre-transaction, exposures (a.k.a. tender to contract exposures)
The price list problem
The foreign competitor problem
Quantifying economic exposure

Table of Contents

Hedging gearing or net worth
Translation exposure management
Currency risk policies
Summary
End of chapter questions

Part H Miscellaneous

Miscellaneous issues in international finance

Overseas subsidiary performance measurement
Problems in overseas performance evaluation
Centralisation of exposure management
The treasury as a profit centre
Transfer pricing
Accounting for financial market derivatives
Repos
Syndicated loans
Offshore currency interest rates and their linkage with Domestic rates
The international bond market
The advantages of the eurobond market to borrowers
The advantages of the eurobond market to investors
Cash management
Project finance
Summary
End of chapter questions

Test bank 5

Exercises
Multiple choice questions

Suggested answers to end of chapter questions

Suggested answers to selected exercises

Solutions to multiple choice questions

Appendix

Present value of $1

Table of Contents

Present value of $1 received annually for n years

Table of areas under the normal curve

Black and Scholes value of call option expressed as a percentage of the share price

Present value of $1 with a continuous discount rate, r , for T periods. Values of e^{-rt}

Selections from ISO 4217 currency code list, a.k.a. SWIFT codes

Glossary

Notes

Index