

HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT AND ORGANISATIONAL BEHAVIOUR

Fifth Edition

Laurie J. Mullins & Penny Dossor

Hospitality Management and Organisational Behaviour

Hospitality Management and Organisational Behaviour

Table of Contents

Cover
Title
Copyright
Contents
About the authors
Dedications
In acknowledgement and appreciation
Acknowledgements
Publisher's acknowledgements
Preface
1 Nature and scope of the hospitality industry
The scope and size of the hospitality industry
What is hospitality?
General management theory
Hospitality education and research
So is the hospitality industry unique?
The organisational setting
Common factors in organisations
Hotel operations and the hospitality industry
Organisational and staffing characteristics
Distinctive nature of the hotel industry
The nature of service industries
Service management
The open systems model of analysis
The customer as the major throughput

Table of Contents

Environmental influences
Analysis of hospitality operations
Synopsis
Review and discussion questions
Assignments
Tasks
Case study
References

2 Understanding the nature of the workforce

The behaviour of people
Influences on behaviour
A behavioural science approach
The recognition of individuality
Personality
Emotional labour
Stress at work
Intelligence
Emotional intelligence
The process of perception
Attitudes
The nature of the workforce
Meaning of work in people's lives
The psychological contract
Frustration-induced behaviour
An understanding of human nature?
An understanding of human behaviour at work
Synopsis
Review and discussion questions
Assignments
Case studies
References

Table of Contents

3 Diversity management

The impact of globalisation on the management of people in the hospitality industry

Managing diversity

Diversity and age

The importance of cultural influences

Cultural differences in communication

The communication process

Non-verbal communication and body language

Migrant workers

Culture shock and cultural adjustment

Acculturation, assimilation and retention of international workers

Improving cross-cultural skills

Working overseas

Synopsis

Review and discussion questions

Assignments

Case study

References

4 Organisational goals and structure

Purpose (goals)

Organisational ideologies and philosophy

Mission statements

Objectives and policy

Ethical aspects

General and sectional policy

The profit motive

Other considerations and motivations

Multiple performance objectives

Corporate social responsibility

Corporate social responsibility and the hospitality industry

Organisational structure

Table of Contents

Scientific management
Bureaucracy
The human relations approach
The systems approach
The contingency approach
Mechanistic and organic organisations
Social action theory
The flexible organisation
Matrix structures
Synopsis
Review and discussion questions
Assignments
Case studies
Tasks
References

5 Defining management

The meaning of management
The principles and processes of management
Common activities of management
Managerial roles
Applications to the hotel manager
Behaviour patterns of managers
The differing styles and approaches of management
Blake and Mouton Managerial Grid
Management by objectives (MBO)
The balanced scorecard
The attributes and skills of hospitality managers
Basic managerial philosophies
Synopsis
Review and discussion questions
Assignments

Table of Contents

Case study

References

6 Nature of leadership

The leadership process

The study of leadership

The qualities or traits theories

The functional or group approach

Leadership as a behavioural category

Styles of leadership

The situational approach and contingency models

Transformational leadership

Inspirational (or visionary) leadership

Transcendental (servant) leadership

Leadership effectiveness

Synopsis

Review and discussion questions

Assignments

Case study

Tasks

References

7 Workforce motivation and involvement

The nature of motivation

Needs and expectations at work

Motivation and job satisfaction

Theories of motivation

Maslow's hierarchy of needs

Alderfer's continuum of needs model

Herzberg's two-factor theory

McClelland's achievement motivation

Paying and motivating hourly workers

Process theories of motivation

Table of Contents

Vroom's expectancy theory
The Porter and Lawler expectancy model
Practical applications of expectancy theory
Equity theory of motivation
Goal theory
Applications of motivational theories
The nature of hospitality work
Job satisfaction and job design
Restructuring of individual jobs
Job enrichment and core job dimensions
The concept of empowerment
Synopsis
Review and discussion questions
Assignment
Case study
References

8 Managing through groups and teams

The nature of work groups
Differences between groups and teams
Group values and norms of behaviour
Developing effective groups
Membership of the group
Groups in organisations
Group development and maturity
Formal and informal groups
The need for teamwork
Social identity theory
Potential disadvantages of cohesive groups
The performance of groups
Channels of communication in groups
Membership of successful teams

Table of Contents

Role relationships

Role stress

Behaviour of individuals in groups

Skills of effective teamwork

Building successful teams

Virtual teams

Management and communication skills

Cultural diversity in teams

Synopsis

Review and discussion questions

Assignments

Case study

Appendix 1

References

9 Managing challenging situations

Conflict

Organisational stress

Managing challenging situations in the hospitality industry

Challenging issues

Bullying

Control

Synopsis

Review and discussion questions

Case studies

References

10 Managing the changing environment

Organisational effectiveness

Organisational development

Organisational culture

The importance of culture

Organisational performance

Table of Contents

The management of change
Technology and change
Planned organisational change
Resistance to change
The future
Synopsis
Review and discussion questions
Assignments
Case studies
References
Index