

Cyrus Cooper

brilliant Workshops

How to deliver effective workshops to any audience

Praise for Brilliant Workshops

Cyrus has a wealth of experience in designing and delivering learning and development solutions. The key to his success is how he works collaboratively with his clients to truly understand their needs and always having the courage to be himself. This book will help you develop your own training style and enable you to deliver workshops that have a unique personal touch and add value to business.

Elizabeth Crosse, Head of Learning and Development, Legal Services Commission

Cyrus Cooper has had an ongoing relationship with Thomson Reuters for a number of years focusing on the training and development of our graduates. His experience of creating and delivering workshops that add value to attendees and drive results is vast, and the results speak for themselves; our graduates come out more secure in themselves, more prepared for working life and with an array of soft skills they can use every day. This book will be an excellent bible for any manager who wishes to develop similar workshop results.

Elizabeth Pedler, Head of Graduate Programmes, Markets Division, Thomson Reuters

Cyrus Cooper connects quickly and effectively with his audiences. Along with excellent content, this provides a powerful platform for brilliant training to occur. In Brilliant Workshops, Cyrus shares with the reader many and much of what has made him and can equip you to deliver brilliant workshops of your own.

Ken Buist, Founder of The Trusted Adviser, Author and Speaker

Brilliant Workshops

Table of Contents

Cover

Brilliant Workshops

Contents

About the author

Acknowledgements

Foreword

Introduction

Part 1 Backstage (pre-workshop)

What is wanted? What is needed?

What can I do?

Planning and design

The audience

Tools to support delivery

Handouts, workbooks or other resources?

Presentation styles and your stage

Part 2 Onstage stand and deliver (during the workshop)

And now Ill pass you over to. . .

Managing group dynamics

Table of Contents

How well is it going?

Part 3 Encore (post-workshop)

Evaluation

What next?

Conclusion: Did that really happen? I don't believe you!

References

Index