

Brill

HOW TO WRITE A BRILLIANT

CV

JIM BRIGHT, JOANNE EARL & DAVID WINTER

iant

brilliant

how to write a brilliant CV

How to Write a Brilliant CV

Table of Contents

Cover

Contents

About the authors

Acknowledgements

Introduction

Part 1: Writing a CV from scratch

1 How to sell yourself

2 The applicant/employer fit

3 Where is the prime suspect?

4 How to read a job ad

5 Job descriptions

6 Do you fit the job?

7 What sort of person are you?

8 Making the perfect fit

9 Presenting your CV

Part 2: The icing on the cake

10 Mind your language!

11 Using competency statements

12 Telling tales

13 Using career objectives

14 Job application letters

Part 3: The doctor is in – your problems solved

Table of Contents

15 Addressing selection criteria

16 CV makeovers

17 Tricky CV issues

Part 4: Resource bank useful ingredients and tips

18 Finding out, finding others and being found: job searching for a new decade

19 Internet sites and other resources