

Fourth edition

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

Stuart Wall Sonal Minocha Bronwen Rees

International Business

International Business

Table of Contents

Cover

Title Page

Copyright

Brief contents

Contents

List of figures

Preface: using this book

Acknowledgements

Abbreviations

Chapter 1 Introduction to international business

Introduction

Patterns and trends in international business

Globalisation

The multinational enterprise (MNE)

How important are the multinationals?

Boxes

1.1 Relative unit labour costs (RULC)

1.2 Definitions of globalisation

Case studies

1.1 Dyson revisits its international location

1.2 A local hero's fight for American jobs

1.3 Manufacturing futures and markets

1.4 JCB adapts to the Indian market

1.5 Outsourcing in Action: China outsources clothes

Table of Contents

1.6 Reshoring creates new jobs

1.7 Competing in a globalised economy

Chapter 2 Internationalisation process

Introduction

Export-based methods for internationalisation

Non-equity-based methods for internationalisation

Equity-based methods for internationalisation

Why invest abroad?

Theoretical explanations

Case studies

2.1 Producers pin hope on Agoa Trade Pact to drive exports

2.2 Patents and the EU pharmaceuticals market

2.3 Asda sees gap in Malta market for George shop

2.4 Legal process outsourcing in India

2.5 Market entry into China

2.6 Renault and Nissan seek 4.3bn in synergies

2.7 The Japanese keiretsu

2.8 High energy costs drive EU industry abroad

2.9 China's thirst for dairy

2.10 Toyota wins support for its US operations

2.11 Nokia offers a taxing tale

2.12 Internationalisation may not always deliver!

Chapter 3 International business: theory and practice

Introduction

Gains from trade

Sources of comparative and competitive advantage

Trade and the world economy

Barriers to trade

Table of Contents

Protectionist policies

Regional trading arrangements

Government policies and international business

International institutions and world trade

The International Monetary Fund (IMF)

World Bank

Boxes

3.1 Comparative advantage and opportunity cost

3.2 Gains from trade

3.3 Impacts of a tariff

3.4 Impacts of a subsidy

3.5 Customs Union: trade creation and trade diversion

3.6 Impacts of EU policies on farms and agri-businesses

3.7 IMF stabilisation programmes

3.8 World Bank structural adjustment and stabilisation

Case studies

3.1 Free trade and its impacts: NAFTA

3.2 Intra-industry trade: Honda

3.3 Indian subsidies to cereal farmers

3.4 Luxembourg tax regime: Under siege

3.5 WTO doubts grow over global role

Chapter 4 The political, legal, economic and technological environment

Introduction

Political environment

Political risk

The international legal and regulatory environment

Intellectual property rights

Economic systems

Table of Contents

Economic variables and the business environment

Technological environment

Technology transfer

Boxes

4.1 EU directives and state aid

4.2 Strategic patenting

4.3 Elasticity of demand

4.4 Creating or destroying jobs

Case studies

4.1 Chinese government and EU milk products

4.2 Sugar and onions in India

4.3 BMW after Rover

4.4 Stricter US roles drive fuel efficiency

4.5 Light bulbs reduce energy costs

4.6 Engineering the future - Smartphone patents

4.7 Redskins lose trademark protection

4.8 Market influences on Wellcome share price

4.9 Transport and elasticities of demand

4.10 Eyeball scans are a fresh weapon against fraud

Chapter 5 International sociocultural environment

Introduction

National cultural characteristics

Cultural impacts on international business

National, organisational and occupational cultures

Strategies for developing intercultural competence

Boxes

5.1 A clash of cultures

5.2 National and organisational cultural dimensions

Case studies

Table of Contents

5.1 Brazilian, Russian, Indian and Chinese cultural characteristics

5.2 National culture and Japanese competitiveness

5.4 Apple

5.5 Corporate culture and Japanese competitiveness

5.6 Challenges to cross-cultural team management

Chapter 6 International ethical and ecological environment

Introduction

Business ethics

Ethics and the corporate culture

Ethical responsibilities and codes of conduct

Ethics and profits

International business ethics

Ecological/environmental issues

Global warming, 'carbon footprint' and tradable permits

Boxes

6.1 An ethical dilemma

6.2 TI Corruption Perception Index

6.3 Bribery and corruption

6.4 Environmental impacts, taxes and regulations

6.5 Stern Report and global warming

6.6 The EU Emissions Trading Scheme

Case studies

6.1 The Body Shop

6.2 Apple in supply-chain purge at Africa mines

6.3 Forestry and corporate responsibility

6.4 Organic farming

6.5 Emissions trading: The case of cement

Chapter 7 International strategic issues

Table of Contents

Introduction

Business strategy ideas and concepts

Choice of strategy

Corporate strategy in a global economy

International business and the value chain

International business strategies

Institutional strategies and international business

Techniques for strategic analysis

International operations management and logistical strategies

Boxes

7.1 Mergers and acquisitions incentives

7.2 Two-firm zero-sum game

7.3 Lean production

7.4 Inventory (stock) costs and control

7.5 Economies of scope and the transport sector

Case studies

7.1 Strategies for MNEs in emerging markets

7.2 Flipkart formulation: strategy for an Indian start-up

7.3 Publishers take on Amazon

7.4 Apple hopes to open door to 'smarter' homes

7.5 Daimler-Benz AG and Chrysler

7.6 Retail banks go digital

7.7 E-tailers in India prepare for showdown

7.8 Operations management system: Khan Handicrafts

7.9 Surgeons adopt assembly-line ideas

7.10 Walmart's English experiment

Chapter 8 International human resource management

Introduction

Human resource management function

Table of Contents

International human resource management (IHRM)

International HRM approaches

IHRM policies and practices

Boxes

8.1 Motivation theory and HRM

8.2 Greek national culture and decentralisation of the IHRM function

Case studies

8.1 Hire the young and old McDonald's

8.2 Uncertainty avoidance and IHRM policies

8.3 China factory chiefs struggle to maintain worker loyalty

8.4 Islamic culture and IHRM

8.5 Skills training urged for low paid

8.6 Mindset of a Toyota manager revealed

8.7 Reward mechanisms in cross-cultural contexts

Chapter 9 International marketing

Introduction

The principal activities of marketing

International marketing

Reasons for international marketing

Decision making and international marketing

Market selection

Market-entry strategies

International marketing mix

International marketing planning

Boxes

9.1 Baseball thrives on desk research

9.2 Market segmentation

9.3 Variations in the international marketing mix

9.4 Strategic pricing initiatives

Table of Contents

9.5 Price elasticity of demand (PED) and revenue

9.6 Price discrimination

9.7 Promotion/advertising and demand

Case studies

9.1 How Lego and others turned to anthropology

9.2 Britons use smart devices for longer than they sleep

9.3 Moving ADS

9.4 Flipkart aims to make shoe fit

9.5 Tesco steps up battle against pound shops

9.6 Royal Mail, pricing and letters

9.7 Indian stores in search of drama

Chapter 10 International finance: theory and practice

Introduction

Accounting, financial information and decision making

Risk assessment and the credit rating agencies

International financial markets

The exchange rate

International debt financing

Other international financial markets

International equity markets

International financial risk management

Boxes

10.1 Types of exchange rate

10.2 The Structured Investment Vehicle (SIV)

10.3 Financial instruments and international trade

Case studies

10.1 Accounts shake-up

10.2 New accounting rule a boost for investors

10.3 Moody's cuts Puerto Rico deeper into junk

Table of Contents

10.4 Moody's faces new conflict of interest claim

10.5 IMF says 'overvalued' pound preventing rebalancing

10.6 Sliced and diced debt deals returns

10.7 Tunisia and Pakistan join rush for Sharia bonds

10.8 Risk needs a human touch

References

Index