

PEARSON NEW INTERNATIONAL EDITION

Fundamentals of Planning and Developing
Tourism

Bulent I. Kastarlak Brian Barber

Pearson New International Edition

Fundamentals of Planning and Developing
Tourism

Bulent I. Kastarlak Brian Barber

Fundamentals of Planning and Developing Tourism

Table of Contents

Cover

Table of Contents

1. Understanding Tourism Development
 2. Toward a General Theory of Tourism Planning and Development" The BIK System
 3. Prerequisites for Sustainable Tourism
 4. Examples of General and Special Interest Tourism
 5. Market System and Planned Growth
 6. Practicing and Sustainable Tourism Development
 7. Planning Cycles in Government-Assisted Tourism Development
 8. Tourism Development in Market Economic Systems
 9. Government Policies and Legislation for Tourism Development
 10. Financing Government and Private Sector Tourism Projects
 11. Surveying the Tourism Product
 12. Analyzing Tourism Economies and Tourism Products
 13. Planning Tourism at National, Regional, and Local Destination Levels
 14. Project Design, Permit, and Construction
 15. Project Financing, Agreements, and Ownership
 16. Computer Simulation, Computer-Aided Design, and Geographic Information Systems
 17. Managing, Planning, and Marketing Tourism
 18. The Technical Editor's Postscript: Progress in Recognizing the Importance of Reducing Poverty through Tourism
 19. Histories and Case Studies of Tourism Planning
- Appendix: Selected World Heritage Sites
- Appendix: Tourism Sector Industries and Establishments
- Appendix: History of the BIK System

Table of Contents

Appendix: Computer Mapping and Electronic Processing of Tourism Data
Using the BIK System

Appendix: Calculating Tourism Sector Indicators

Appendix: Attraction/Facility-Activity-Season Correlation

Appendix: Procedures for Investing in a Tourism Project in Countries Where Such Procedures Are Required

Appendix: Calculating the Financial Feasibility of Projects

Appendix: Examples of Attraction/Facility-Activity-Season Correlation

Index