

The background of the cover is a photograph of a red-painted metal frame, likely from a vehicle or industrial equipment. A section of the glass within the frame is shattered, showing a spiderweb pattern of cracks and some loose fragments. The text is overlaid on this image.

foundations series

Twelfth Edition

CRIMINAL LAW

Michael Jefferson

Criminal Law

Criminal Law

Table of Contents

Cover

Contents

Preface

Acknowledgements

Table of Cases

Table of Legislation

Part 1 Preliminary matters

1 Introduction to criminal law

Aims and objectives

The fundamental principles of criminal liability

Human Rights Act 1998

Attempted definitions of a crime

Differences between criminal and civil law

Hierarchy of the criminal courts: the appeal system

Precedent in criminal law

The interpretation of criminal statutes

Classification of offences by origin: can judges make new criminal laws?

Criminal law reform, the Law Commission, the draft Criminal Code and recent developments

Summary

Further reading

Part 2 General principles

2 Actus reus

Aims and objectives

Introduction

Some problems

Table of Contents

Conduct and result crimes

Causation

Omission

Causation in omissions

The policy behind general non-liability for omissions

Reform of liability for omissions

Summary

Further reading

3 Mens rea

Aims and objectives

Introduction

Definition of mens rea

Examples of mens rea

Motive

Intent

Recklessness

G [2004] AC 1034

Knowingly

Wilfully

Negligence

Some problems of mens rea

Transferred malice

Reform of transferred malice

Contemporaneity

Summary

Further reading

4 Strict liability

Aims and objectives

Introduction: definition and human rights

Strict and absolute offences

The exceptional cases

Strict liability: the basics

Table of Contents

Crimes which require mens rea and crimes which do not

How the courts apply these guidelines

Reasons for strict liability

Reasons why there should not be offences of strict liability

Suggestions for reform of the law relating to strict liability

Conclusions

Summary

Further reading

5 Principal parties and secondary offenders

Aims and objectives

Introduction

Definitions and terminology

Failure to act

Mens rea

Joint enterprise liability

Non-conviction of the principal offender

Can a victim be an accessory?

Innocent agency

Withdrawal

Assisting an offender and concealing an offence

Summary

Further reading

6 Vicarious and corporate liability

Aims and objectives

Introduction to vicarious liability

The exceptions

Vicarious liability and attempts; vicarious liability and secondary participation

The rationale of vicarious liability

Reform

Corporate liability

Summary

Further reading

Table of Contents

7 Infancy, duress, coercion, necessity, duress of circumstances

Aims and objectives

Introduction to Chapters 7–9

Introduction to defences

Justification and excuse

Infancy

Duress

Coercion

Necessity and duress of circumstances

Summary

Further reading

8 Mistake, intoxication, self-defence

Aims and objectives

Mistake

Intoxication

The Law Commissions 2009 proposals

Self-defence and the prevention of crime

Reform

Conclusion: police, Martin and the ECHR

Summary

Further reading

9 Defences of mental disorder

Aims and objectives

Introduction

Unfitness to plead

Insanity

Diminished responsibility

Automatism

Summary

Further reading

10 Inchoate offences

Table of Contents

- Aims and objectives
- Introduction
- Encouraging or assisting
- Conspiracy
- Attempt
- Summary
- Further reading

Part 3 Particular offences

11 Murder

- Aims and objectives
- General introduction
- The definition of murder
- The sentence for murder
- Death
- Abolition of the year-and-a-day rule
- Malice aforethought
- Murder, manslaughter and infanticide
- Summary
- Further reading

12 Manslaughter

- Aims and objectives
- Introduction
- Loss of control
- Sexual fidelity and the new defence of loss of control: the arguments
- Killing in pursuance of a suicide pact
- Subjectively reckless manslaughter
- Killing by gross negligence
- Unlawful act or constructive manslaughter
- Reform of manslaughter
- Conclusion
- Summary
- Further reading

Table of Contents

13 Non-fatal offences

Aims and objectives

Introduction

Assault

Threat to kill

Battery

Consent

Consent and the law in the twenty-first century

Reform of consent and other defences to assault and battery

Assault occasioning actual bodily harm

Wounding and grievous bodily harm

Reform of ss 18, 20 and 47

The 1993 recommendations on assaults

The 1998 Home Office proposals

Summary

Further reading

14 Rape and other sexual offences

Aims and objectives

Introduction to rape

The basic definition of rape

Sexual offences other than rape

Summary

Further reading

15 Theft and robbery

Aims and objectives

Introduction to the Theft Act 1968

Theft

Robbery

Summary

Further reading

16 Fraud, making off without payment

Table of Contents

Aims and objectives

Introduction

The Fraud Act 2006

Making off without payment

Further reading

17 Blackmail, burglary, going equipped, handling

Aims and objectives

Blackmail

Introduction

Burglary

Going equipped

Handling

Summary

Further reading

18 Criminal damage

Aims and objectives

Introduction

Actus reus

The defence of lawful excuse (s 5)

Mens rea

Creating a dangerous situation and not dealing with it

Summary

Further reading

Glossary

Bibliography

Index