

Laurie J. Mullins

ESSENTIALS OF ORGANISATIONAL BEHAVIOUR

with Gill Christy

THIRD EDITION

ESSENTIALS OF ORGANISATIONAL BEHAVIOUR

Visit the Essentials of Organisational Behaviour, 3rd edition Companion Website at www.pearsoned.co.uk/mullins to find valuable student learning material including:

- Multiple choice questions to test your learning
- Weblinks to relevant, specific Internet resources to facilitate in-depth independent research
- An online glossary to explain key terms
- Flashcards to test your knowledge of key terms

Essentials of Organisational Behaviour

Table of Contents

Front Cover

About the author

Contents in Brief

Contents in Detail

About this Book

Guided Tour

Publisher's Acknowledgments

Part 1: The Organisational Setting

Chapter 1: The Nature of Organisational Behaviour

The meaning of organisational behaviour

The study of organisational behaviour

The relevance of theory

The realities of organisational behaviour

A framework of study

Influences on behaviour

Contrasting but related approaches

A multidisciplinary approach

Organisational Metaphors

Orientations to work and the work Ethic

International and cultural influences

Management as an Integrating Activity

The peopleorganisation relationship

The Psychological Contract

Process of balancing

Changing nature of the psychological contract

Organisational Practices

The Peter Principle

Parkinson's Law

People making work for each other

Relevance of observations

Table of Contents

The changing world of work organisations
New approaches to management and organisational behaviour
Globalisation and the International Context
Boundaryless organisation
The future of globalisation
Globalisation and the EU
A Cross-Cultural approach to Management
Managing people from different cultures
Is Organisational Behaviour Culture-Bound?
Culture as understanding
Five Dimensions of culture: the contribution of Hofstede
Evaluation of Hofstede's work
Cultural Diversity: the contribution of Trompenaars
The high- and low-context cultures framework
Emerging frameworks for understanding culture
Convergence or culture-specific Organisational Behaviour
The importance of Organisational Behaviour
Synopsis
Review and discussion questions
Management in the news: A melting pot for forging success
Assignments 1 and 2
Case study: Virgin Atlantic and Ryanair
Notes and references
Integrative case study for Part 1: The Sunday Times 100 (Section 1)
Chapter 2: Approaches to Organisation and Management
The theory of Management
Developments in Management and Organisational Behaviour
A framework of analysis
The Classical Approach
Sets of principles
Evaluation of the classical approach
Scientific Management
Principles to guide management
Reactions against scientific management
Taylorism as management control
Relevance of Scientific Management
The theme of inefficiency

Table of Contents

Impetus to management thinking

Bureaucracy

Main characteristics of bureaucracies

Criticisms of Bureaucracy

Restriction of psychological growth

Evaluation of Bureaucracy

Organisational solutions

Relevance today

Structuralism

The Human Relations Approach

The Hawthorne experiments

Evaluation of the Human Relations Approach

Sex power differential

Importance of the Hawthorne experiments

Humanisation of the work organisation

Neo-human Relations

Some leading contributors

The Systems Approach

The business organisation as an open system

The socio-technical system

Technology determinism

The Contingency Approach

Other approaches to the study of Organisations

The Decision-Making approach

Social Action

Action theory

A number of Approaches

Postmodernism

A generalised sociological concept

Relevance to Management and Organisational Behaviour

The importance of cultural contexts

Towards a Scientific Value approach?

Balance between philosophy and science

Benefits to the Manager

Synopsis

Review and Discussion Questions

Management in the news: The story of the middleman

Table of Contents

Assignment

Case study: Dell Computers: the world at your fingertips

Notes and references

Integrative case study for Part 1: The Sunday Times 100 (Section 2)

Part 2: The Individual

Chapter 3: Individual Differences and Diversity

The Recognition of Individuality

How do Individuals Differ?

Personality

Nomothetic and Idiographic Approaches

Theory and the world of work

Uniqueness and similarities

Nomothetic Personality Theories

The big five

Idiographic Theoretical Approaches

Gurus in idiographic approaches

Complementary Approaches

Applications within the work organisation

Recruitment and selection

Personal development and teamworking

Personality and social expectations

Emotions at work

Stress at work

Type A and Type B Personalities

Type A people and team performance

Ability

Is intelligence inherited?

The nature of intelligence

Intelligence one or many?

Emotional Intelligence (EI)

Significance of emotional intelligence

Developing EI

Attitudes

The functions of attitudes

Prediction of behaviour

Employee attitude surveys

Attitude Change

Table of Contents

Testing and Assessment

- Features of psychometric tests
- Personality questionnaires
- The use and limitations of tests

Diversity Management

- The concept of diversity
- Devolution and regionalisation
- From equal opportunities to managing diversity

The Business Case for Diversity

- Embracing individual differences
- Positive and negative propositions
- Diversity and management recruitment
- Diversity action plans

Diversity Training

- Diversity and stereotyping
- Managers' attitudes, values and beliefs

Top Performing Organisations

Criticisms and Limitations

- Individuality and groups
- Concern for moral and social issues

Diversity, Gender and Organisations

- Emotions, politics and gender
- Contradictions and confusion

Synopsis

Review and discussion questions

Management in the news: The Apprentice, week nine

Assignment

Case study: B&Q: The business case for diversity

Notes and references

Integrative case study for Part 2: The Wardrobe Surgery (Section 1)

Chapter 4: Perception and Communication

The Perceptual Process

- Individuality

Selectivity in Attention and Perception

- Perception as information processing

Internal Factors

- Sensory limits or thresholds

Table of Contents

Psychological factors

The needs of an individual

Cultural Differences

The importance of language

External Factors

Organisation and Arrangement of Stimuli

Figure and ground

Grouping

Closure

Perceptual Illusions

Selection and Attention

Culture and socialisation

Impression management

Organisation and Judgement

Physical characteristics and appearance

Connection of the Conscious, Unconscious and Physiology

Framing

Appreciative inquiry

Perceiving Other People

Testing assumptions

The dynamics of interpersonal perception

Setting and environment

Non-Verbal Communication and Body Language

Cultural differences

Interpersonal Communications

Importance of feedback

Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP)

Awareness and change

Transactional Analysis (TA)

Preferred ego state

Complementary or crossed reaction

Understanding of human behaviour

Attribution Theory

Basic criteria in making attributions

Implications of attribution theory

Perceptual Distortions and Errors

Stereotyping

Social implications

Table of Contents

The Halo Effect

Perpetual Defence

Projection

Self-fulfilling Prophecy

Understanding the Organisational Process

The culture of the organisation

Synopsis

Review and discussion questions

Management in the news: How to be happy in life: let out your anger

Assignment 1

Assignment 2

Case study: Behavioural Economics

Notes and references

Integrative case study for Part 2: The Wardrobe Surgery (Section 2)

Chapter 5: Work Motivation and Job Satisfaction

The Meaning of Motivation

Underlying concept of motivation

Needs and Expectations at Work

Higher set of motivational needs

A three-fold classification

Money as a Motivator

Broader Intrinsic Motivation

Frustration-Induced Behaviour

Constructive behaviour

Frustration (negative responses)

Factors influencing frustration

Theories of Motivation

Criticisms and reservations

Content theories and process theories

Content Theories of Motivation

Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs Theory

Applications to the work situation

Alderfer's Modified Need Hierarchy Model

A continuum of needs

Satisfaction of needs

Herzberg's two-factor Theory

Table of Contents

Hygiene and motivating factors

Evaluation of Herzberg's work

McClelland's Achievement Motivation Theory

Use of projective tests

People with high achievement needs

Characteristics of achievement motivation

Process Theories of Motivation

Expectancy theories of motivation

Vroom's Expectancy Theory

Valence

Instrumentality

Expectancy

Motivational force

The Porter and Lawler Expectancy Model

Explanation of Relationships

Lawler's Revised Expectancy Model

Implications for Managers of Expectancy Theories

Equity Theory of Motivation

Behaviour as a consequence of inequity

The ultimatum game

Goal Theory

Goal-setting and performance

Practical implications for the manager

Attribution Theory

Relevance today for the manager

Organisational Behaviour Modification

Applications of OBMod

The Motivation of Knowledge Workers

A climate of creativity

Cross-Cultural Dimensions of Motivation

Job Satisfaction

The meaning and nature of job satisfaction

Dimensions of job satisfaction

Five contractual areas

The work environment

Broader approaches

Alienation at work

A Comprehensive Model of Job Enrichment

Table of Contents

Five core dimensions

Motivating potential score

Empirical support for the model

Contextual Factors in Job Design

Synopsis

Review and discussion questions

Management in the news: Top marks for the best employee awards

Assignments 1 and 2

Case study: Don't get mad, get on-line!

Notes and references

Integrative case study for Part 2: The Wardrobe Surgery (Section 3)

Part 3: Groups, Teams and Leadership

Chapter 6: Work Groups and Teams

The Meaning and Importance of Groups and Teams

Differences Between Groups and Teams

Teamwork a fashionable term

Group Values and Norms

Informal social relations

Formal and Informal Groups

Formal groups

Informal groups

Reasons for Formation of groups or Teams

Group Cohesiveness and Performance

Membership

Work Environment

Organisational

Group Development and Maturity

Creative leadership and group development

Social Identity Theory

Potential Disadvantages of Strong, Cohesive Groups

Intergroup conflict

Characteristics of an Effective Work Group

The effects of technology

Impact of information technology

Virtual Teams

Management and communication skills

Table of Contents

Organising the virtual team

Cultural diversity

Role Relationships

A person's role-set

Role incongruence

Role expectations

Role Conflict

Role conflict and matrix organisation

Role stress

Other influences on behaviour

The Importance of Teamwork

Skills of effective teamworking

Interactions Among Members

Co-operation and interactions

Belbin's Team-Roles

Back-up team-roles

The value of Belbin's team-roles inventory

Patterns of Communication

Implications for the manager

Task and maintenance functions

Classification of member roles

Individual Compared with group or Team Performance

The risky-shift phenomenon

'Groupthink'

Brainstorming

Effectiveness of brainstorming groups

Sensitivity Training

The Johari window

Building Successful Teams

Skills for successful teamwork

The role of emotional intelligence

Synopsis

Review and discussion questions

Management in the news: Dragon boat racing on the Thames

Assignments 1 and 2

Case Study: Top Gear

Notes and references

Integrative case study for Part 3: The Red Arrows (Section 1)

Table of Contents

Chapter 7: The Nature of Leadership

The Meaning of Leadership

Changing nature of the work organisation

Teamwork and inspiration

Leadership or Management?

Attitudes and relations with others

A close relationship

Approaches to Leadership

The Qualities or Traits Approach

Limitations of the traits approach

The Functional (or group) Approach

Action-Centred Leadership

Leadership as a Behavioural Category

Employee or production-centred supervisors

Major dimensions of managerial leadership

Styles of Leadership

Broad framework of leadership style

Continuum of Leadership Behaviour

Four main styles of leadership

Three main forces

Contingency Theories of Leadership

Fiedler's Contingency Model

Favourability of leadership situation

The Vroom and Yetton Contingency Model

Decision rules

The Vroom and Jago Revised Decision Model

PathGoal Theory

Main types of leadership behaviour

Two main situational factors

Readiness of the Followers or Group

Task behaviour and relationship behaviour

Development of subordinates

Transformational Leadership

Components of transformational leadership

Inspirational or Visionary Leadership

The importance of vision

Personal qualities or charisma

Table of Contents

Need for visionary leadership

The inspirational gap

Leadership and Innovation

Conceptual framework

The Leadership Relationship

Power and leadership influence

Other sources of power

Power, responsibility and wisdom

Leadership Effectiveness

Variables affecting leadership effectiveness

The shadow of leadership

Authority without arrogance

Leadership Development

Leaders of the Future

New skills and competencies

Synopsis

Review and discussion questions

Management in the news: Managing the mood is crucial

Assignment 1

Assignment 2

Case study: Being Apple: Steve Jobs

Notes and references

Integrative case study for Part 3: The Red Arrows (Section 2)

Chapter 8: The Nature of Management

The Meaning of Management

The Process of Management

Principles of Management

Relevance today

Management as a Social Process

Other analyses

The Tasks and Contribution of a Manager

Responsibility for the work of other people

The Essential Nature of Managerial Work

'Managing' and 'doing'

The efforts of other people

The Work of a Manager

The diversity of management

Table of Contents

Managerial Roles

Why organisations need managers

Behaviour Pattern of General Managers

Typical pattern of behaviour

Determining What Real Managers Do

Patterns of Managerial Work and Behaviour

Demands, constraints and choices

The Attributes and Qualities of a Manager

The Importance of Management Skills

The Changing Role of Managers

But what is actually 'new'?

The Importance of Managerial Style

Human capital management (HCM)

Theory X and Theory Y Management

Managerial strategies

Use of a Theory X approach

The Managerial/Leadership Grid®

Five basic combinations

Dominant style of management

Framework for patterns of behaviour

Management by Objectives (MBO)

Relevance today

Managing with and through People

Basic managerial philosophies

The nature of people at work

Managerial Effectiveness

Efficiency and effectiveness

Effective and successful managers

Measures of Effectiveness

Management Standards Centre (MSC)

Synopsis

Review and discussion questions

Management in the news: Science of Managing Monkeys

Assignments 1 and 2

Case study: Stuck in the middle?

Notes and references

Integrative case study for Part 3: The Red Arrows (Section 3)

Table of Contents

Part 4: The Organisation

Chapter 9: Strategy and Structure

The Importance of Strategy

- Corporate approach in the public sector
- Opportunities and risks
- E-business strategies
- Strategy and culture

SWOT Analysis

Organisational Goals

- Balance of empowerment and control
- Hidden dangers of target-setting
- Integration of goals
- Compatibility of personal goals and organisational goals

Objectives and Policy

- Corporate guidelines

Dimensions of Organisation Structure

- Objectives of structure
- Organisation structure and culture

The Importance of Good Structure

- The human element

Levels of Organisation

- Interrelationship of levels

Underlying Features of Organisation Structure

- Task and element functions

Division of Work

Centralisation and Decentralisation

- Extent of decentralisation

Principles of Organisation

Span of Control

The Chain of Command

The Importance of the Hierarchy

- Is the hierarchy obsolete?

Formal Organisational Relationships

- Line and staff (functional) organisation
- Difficulties with line and staff relations

Project Teams and Matrix Organisation

- Project teams

Table of Contents

The matrix organisation
Effects of a Deficient Organisation Structure
Organisation Charts
Limitations of organisation charts
Variables Influencing Organisation Structure
The contingency approach
The Changing Face of the Workplace
Remote working
The Demand for Flexibility
Flexible working arrangements
A challenge for managers
Structure and Organisational Behaviour
'Realities' of organisational behaviour
The changing world of organisations and management
Synopsis
Review and discussion questions
Management in the news: A taxing merger
Assignment 1
Assignment 2
Case Study: John Lewis: Distinctively Successful
Notes and references
Integrative case study for Part 4: BP (Section 1)
Chapter 10: Control and Power
The Controversial Nature of Control
Individual behaviour
Organisational performance
Expression of Managerial Behaviour
Environment of consultation and communication
Elements of an Organisational Control System
Forms of Control
Information technology
Strategies of Control in Organisations
Characteristics of an Effective Control System
Power and Management Control
Power, involvement and compliance
Perspectives of Organisational Power

Table of Contents

Gender and power

Different levels of power

Organisational sources of power

Pluralistic Approaches to Power

Network of social relationships

The Balance Between Order and Flexibility

Three main forms of control

Behavioural Factors in Control Systems

Overcoming resistance to management control

Financial and Accounting Systems of Control

Budgetary control and human behaviour

The Concept of Empowerment

The meaning of empowerment

Empowerment and delegation

The ManagerSubordinate Relationship

Authority commensurate with responsibility

Benefits of Delegation

Reasons for lack of delegation

Trust and empowerment

Empowering other People

The need for control

A Systematic Approach to Empowerment and Delegation

Does Empowerment Deliver?

Potential benefits of empowerment

Control versus autonomy

Synopsis

Review and discussion questions

Management in the news: The undercover boss

Assignment

Case study: What you say is what you get . . . ?

Notes and references

Integrative case study for Part 4: BP (Section 2)

Chapter 11: Corporate Responsibility and Ethics

Organisational Ideologies and Principles

Organisational values and beliefs

Integrity and trust

Ethical leadership

Table of Contents

Mission Statements

Value of mission statements

The Profit Objective

Not a sufficient criterion

Fallacy of the single objective

The Balanced Scorecard

Corporate Social Responsibilities (CSR)

Growing attention to social responsibilities

Global responsibilities

Organisational Stakeholders

A blurred distinction

The UN Global Compact

Values and Ethics

Ethical complexity

Ethics and business

Ethics and Corporate Social Responsibility

Differing assumptions about a business

'Goodness' of Proposed Fit

Intelligent self-interest

Offshoring example

Ethics and corporate purpose

Business Ethics

No single view of right or wrong

Further approaches

Ethical decision-making at work

Codes of Business Conduct (or Ethics)

A matter of degree and balance

Related legislation

An integrated approach

Synopsis

Review and discussion questions

Management in the news: Trade-offs in the moral maze

Assignment 1

Assignment 2

Case Study: The Fairtrade Foundation

Notes and references

Integrative case study for Part 4: BP (Section 3)

Table of Contents

Chapter 12: Culture and Change

Organisation Development, Culture and Change

The implementation of OD

A pluralistic approach

Organisational Culture

Levels of culture

Types of Organisational Culture

Four generic types of culture

Influences on the Development of Culture

The Cultural Web

The Importance of Culture

Culture in short-life organisations

Culture and organisational performance

Culture change

National and international culture

Organisational Climate

Characteristics of a healthy organisational climate

Employee Commitment

Securing the commitment of staff

Underlying influences

The Nature of Organisational Change

The forces of change

Change within the organisation

Planned Organisational Change

Behaviour modification

Changes in managerial work

The challenge of e-business

Resistance to Change

Individual resistance

Perceptions and change

Neuroscientific approach to resistance to change

The amygdala and The Almond Effect®

The Management of Organisational Change

Organisational responses to change

Change and the environment

Minimising the problems of change

Style of managerial behaviour

Overcoming Resistance to Change

Table of Contents

People are the key factor

Responsibilities of top management

Leading IT change

Synopsis

Review and discussion questions

Management in the news: The time is ripe for fresh ideas

Assignment

Case Study: Moving with the Times

Notes and references

Integrative case study for Part 4: BP (Section 4)

Glossary

Index

Back Cover