

GLOBAL
EDITION

Public Speaking

Finding Your Voice

TENTH EDITION

Michael Osborn • Suzanne Osborn • Randall Osborn • Kathleen J. Turner

PUBLIC
Speaking

FINDING YOUR VOICE

Public Speaking: Finding Your Voice, Global Edition

Table of Contents

Cover

Brief Contents

Contents

Preface

Instructor and Student Resources

Acknowledgments

Part One: The Foundations of Public Speaking

Chapter 1: Discovering Your Voice

What Public Speaking has to Offer You

Personal Benefits

Social Benefits

Cultural Benefits

Introduction to Communication

Historical Roots of Public Speaking

Communication: Interactive and Dynamic

What Public Speaking Asks of You

Respect for the Integrity of Ideas and Information

A Genuine Concern for Consequences

Final reflections: A Quest that Deserves Commitment

Chapter 2: Understanding and Managing Your Fear of Speaking

Understanding Communication Anxiety

An Unfamiliar Situation

The Importance of the Occasion

The Power of Negative Thinking

Managing Your Communication Anxiety

Reality Testing

Cognitive Restructuring

Selective Relaxation

Attitude Adjustments

Visualization

Putting It All Together

How You Can Help Your Classmates

Final reflections: Climbing Fear Mountain

Table of Contents

Chapter 3: Preparing, Practicing, and Presenting Your First Speech

Preparing and Presenting Your First Speech

- Step 1: Find and Focus Your Topic
- Step 2: Gather Supporting Material
- Step 3: Organize the Body of Your Speech
- Step 4: Add an Introduction, Transitions, and a Conclusion
- Step 5: Prepare a Formal Outline
- Step 6: Practice, Practice, Practice!
- Step 7: Present Your Speech

Managing the Impressions You Make

- Competence
- Integrity
- Goodwill
- Dynamism

Speeches of Introduction

Final reflections: Taking The First Steps

Chapter 4: The Importance of Listening

The Benefits of Effective Listening

- Listening in the Classroom
- Listening at Work

Understanding Listening

- Comprehensive Listening
- Critical Listening
- Empathic Listening

Overcoming Barriers to Effective Listening

- Noise
- Inattention
- Bad Listening Habits
- Emotional Reactions
- Biases

Becoming a Critical Listener

- Do Speakers Support Their Claims?
- Do Speakers Cite Credible Sources?
- Do Speakers Use Words to Clarify or Obscure?

Becoming an Empathic Listener

Your Ethical Responsibilities as a Listener

Evaluating Speeches

- General Considerations
- Evaluating Substance
- Evaluating Structure

Table of Contents

Evaluating Presentation Skills

Final reflections: The Golden Rule of Listening

Part Two: Preparation for Public Speaking

Chapter 5: Understanding Your Audience and the Occasion

Understanding Audience Demographics

Age

Gender

Education

Sociocultural Background

Group Affiliations

Some Words of Caution

Understanding Audience Dynamics

Beliefs

Attitudes

Values

Motives

Gathering Information About Audience Dynamics

Rewards and Challenges of Audience Diversity

Become Familiar with Audience Cultures

Use Supporting Materials Skillfully

Speak from Shared Values

Choose Your Words Carefully

Avoid Rhetorical Land Mines

Adjusting to the Speaking Situation

The Occasion

The Physical Setting

The Psychological Setting

Final reflections: Looking Beyond the Self

Chapter 6: Selecting Your Topic

What Is a Good Topic?

A Good Topic Involves You

A Good Topic Involves Your Listeners

A Good Topic Is One You Can Manage

Discovering Your Topic Area

Brainstorming

Interest Charts

Media and Internet Prompts

Exploring Your Topic Area

Mind Mapping

Topic Analysis

Table of Contents

Refining Your Topic

General Purpose

Specific Purpose

Thesis Statement

An Overview of the Topic Selection Process

Final reflections: The Great Chain of Communication

Chapter 7: Building Responsible Knowledge

The Quest for Responsible Knowledge

Preparing for Research

Planning Your Time

Developing the Right Research Attitude

Setting Your Research Priorities

Recording What You Discover

Avoiding Chance Plagiarism

Your Quest for General Knowledge

Drawing on Personal Experience

Certain Sites on the Internet

Certain Places in the Library

Exploring the Social Media

Seeking In-Depth Knowledge

Going Deeper on the Internet

Going Deeper in the Library

Conducting Personal Interviews

Evaluating What You Discover

Information from the Internet

Information from the Library

Information from Personal Interviews

Final reflections: Empowering Your Voice

Chapter 8: Supporting Your Ideas

Facts and Statistics

Constructing Facts and Figures

Testing Facts and Figures

Testimony

Using Expert Testimony

Developing Lay Testimony

Constructing Prestige Testimony

Designing Testimony: Other Considerations

Examples

Types of Examples

Fashioning Powerful Examples

Table of Contents

Testing Your Examples

Narratives

Types of Narratives

Building Narratives

Testing Your Story

Selecting and Combining Supporting Materials

Final reflections: Developing a Well-Supported Voice

Chapter 9: Developing and Structuring Your Speech

Principles of a Well-Structured Speech

Simplicity

Order

Balance

Structuring the Body of Your Speech

Selecting Your Main Points

Arranging Your Main Points

Developing Your Main Points

Developing a Working Outline

Adding Transitions

Introducing and Concluding Your Speech

Introducing Your Speech

Concluding Your Speech

Selecting and Using Introductory and Concluding Techniques

Preparing Your Formal Outline

Heading

Introduction

Body

Conclusion

Works Cited or Consulted

Formal Outlines: A Caution

Final reflections: Deep Roots of Structuring and Outlining

Part Three: Developing Presentation Skills

Chapter 10: Presentation Aids

The Advantages and Disadvantages of Presentation Aids

Advantages of Presentation Aids

Disadvantages of Presentation Aids

Types of Presentation Aids

People

Objects and Models

Graphics

Pictures

Table of Contents

Presentation Media

Traditional Media

PowerPoint, Prezi, iPad Apps, and More

Preparing Presentation Aids

Principles of Design

Principles of Color

Using Presentation Aids

Ethical Considerations for Using Presentation Aids

Final reflections: Amplifying Your Voice

Chapter 11: Putting Words to Work

What Words Can Do

What Makes Oral Language Special

Shaping Perceptions

Arousing Feelings

Bringing Listeners Together

Moving Listeners to Action

Celebrating Shared Values

The Six C'S of Language Use

Clarity

Color

Concreteness

Correctness

Conciseness

Cultural Sensitivity

How Language Techniques Can Magnify Your Voice

Using Figurative Language

Changing the Order of Words

Using the Sounds of Words to Reinforce Their Meaning

Final reflections: Give Me the Right Word

Chapter 12: Delivering Your Speech

The Power of Presentation

Developing Your Physical Voice

Pitch

Rate

Volume

Variety

Vocal Problems

Developing Your Body Language

Facial Expression and Eye Contact

Movement and Gestures

Table of Contents

Personal Appearance

Developing Versatility in Presentation

Impromptu Speaking

Extemporaneous Speaking

Responding to Feedback from Your Audience

Reading from a Manuscript

Memorized Text Presentation

Practicing for Presentation

Developing Flexibility in Special Situations

Handling Questions and Answers

Making Mediated Presentations

Final reflections: Holding Court

Part Four: Types of Public Speaking

Chapter 13: Informative Speaking

Informative Speaking: An Overview

Forms of Informative Speaking

Speeches of Description

Speeches of Demonstration

Speeches of Explanation

Helping Listeners Learn

Motivating Audiences to Listen

Maintaining Audience Attention

Promoting Audience Retention

Speech Designs

Categorical Design

Comparative Design

Spatial Design

Sequential Design

Chronological Design

Causation Design

Rising to the Challenge of the Informative Speech

Briefings: An Application

Final reflections: Bringing Fire to Your Listeners

Chapter 14: Persuasive Speaking

The Nature of Persuasive Speaking

The Types of Persuasive Speaking

Speeches That Focus on Facts

Speeches That Emphasize Attitudes and Values

Speeches That Advocate Action and Policy

Table of Contents

The Persuasive Process

- Awareness
- Understanding
- Agreement
- Enactment
- Integration

The Challenges of Persuasive Speaking

- Convincing a Reluctant Audience to Listen
- Removing Barriers to Commitment
- Moving from Attitude to Action
- The Challenge of Ethical Persuasion

Designs for Persuasive Speeches

- ProblemSolution Design
- Motivated Sequence Design

Final reflections: The Case for Persuasion

Chapter 15: Persuasion in Controversy

Reasoned Persuasion Versus Manipulative Persuasion

- Forming Evidence
- Developing Proofs

The Master Proof

- Defining Major Issues
- Deductive Reasoning
- Inductive Reasoning
- Analogical Reasoning

Refutative Design

- Design Combinations

Avoiding Defective Persuasion

- The Gallery of Fallacies

Final reflections: Persuasion That Has Legs

Chapter 16: Ceremonial Speaking on Special Occasions

Techniques of Ceremonial Speaking

- Identification
- Magnification

Types of Ceremonial Speeches

- Speeches of Tribute
- Acceptance Speeches
- Speeches of Introduction
- Speeches of Inspiration
- After-Dinner Speeches
- Acting as a Master of Ceremonies

Table of Contents

Narrative Design

Prologue

Plot

Epilogue

Final reflections: "And in Conclusion Let Us Say"

Appendix A: Communicating in Small Groups

Appendix B: Speeches for Analysis

Glossary

Notes

Photo Credits

Index