AN INTRODUCTION TO

HUMAN GEOGRAPHY

AN INTRODUCTION TO HUMAN GEOGRAPHY

Introduction to Human Geography, An

Table of Contents

Cov	er/
-----	-----

Half Title Page

Title Page

Copyright Page

Dedication

Brief Contents

Contents in detail

Contributors

Acknowledgements

Introduction

Geography: finding your way in the world - James Sidaway, Michael Bradshaw, Peter Daniels, Tim Hall and Denis Shaw

Approach of the book

Further reading

Research and study guides, readers and further insights into human geography

Useful websites

Section 1

WORLDS IN THE PAST: CHANGING SCALES OF EXPERIENCE AND PAST WORLDS IN THE PRESENT - Edited by Denis Shaw

- 1 Pre-capitalist worlds Denis Shaw
 - 1.1 Making sense of the past
 - 1.2 A classification of human societies
 - 1.3 Hunting and gathering
 - 1.4 Human settlement and agriculture
 - 1.5 Cities and civilization
 - 1.6 Pre-capitalist societies
 - 1.7 The heritage of the past

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

2 The rise and spread of capitalism - Terry Slater

- 2.1 What is capitalism?
- 2.2 Other perspectives, other stories
- 2.3 The transition from feudalism to capitalism
- 2.4 An expanding world
- 2.5 Imperialism and racism
- 2.6 Industrialization
- 2.7 Urbanization
- 2.8 Conclusion

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

3 The making of the twentieth- and twenty-first-century world - Denis Shaw

- 3.1 The changing capitalism of the early twentieth century
- 3.2 Fordist capitalism
- 3.3 Challenges to liberal capitalism: Nazism, communism
- 3.4 The end of imperialism?
- 3.5 Globalized capitalism
- 3.6 The world in the early twenty-first century
- 3.7 Conclusion

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

Section 2

POPULATION, RESOURCES, FOOD, THE ENVIRONMENT AND DEVELOPMENT - Edited by Michael Bradshaw

- 4 Demographic transformations Dimitris Ballas and Danny Dorling
 - 4.1 Introduction
 - 4.2 Geographies of population growth
 - 4.3 Geographies of changing birth and death rates and the demographic transition model
 - 4.4 Global population growth and punctuated equilibrium
 - 4.5 Migration and population change
 - 4.6 Geographies of mortality and life expectancy
 - 4.7 The demographic impact and geography of disease, natural disasters and wars
 - 4.8 The challenges of an ageing population
 - 4.9 Conclusion

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

5 Resources, energy and development - Michael Bradshaw

- 5.1 Natural resources
- 5.2 Fuelling the planet
- 5.3 Energy and development
- 5.4 Conclusions: global energy dilemmas

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

6 The environment and environmentalism - Rachel Howell and Jenny Pickerill

- 6.1 What kind of world do you want?
- 6.2 How we value the environment and perceive environmental issues
- 6.3 Limits to growth and the challenge of capitalism
- 6.4 The complexity of scale and responsibility
- 6.5 Strategies for change
- 6.6 What is missing from our focus on the environment?
- 6.7 Environmentally sustainable futures

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

7 Food security - Bill Pritchard

- 7.1 Introduction
- 7.2 Hunger in human history
- 7.3 The present scale and geography of global hunger
- 7.4 Defining food security
- 7.5 Food availability
- 7.6 Food access
- 7.7 Conclusion

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

8 Worlds apart? The changing geographies of global development - Marcus Power

- 8.1 Development and the geography of the Third World
- 8.2 Conceptualizing development
- 8.3 Development practice: the historical geography of development
- 8.4 The rising powers and the emergence of new Southern donors
- 8.5 Conclusions: geography, unevenness and inequality

Learning outcomes

Further reading Useful websites

Section 3

SOCIETY, SETTLEMENT AND CULTURE - Edited by Tim Hall

- 9 Cities: urban worlds Tim Hall and Heather Barrett
 - 9.1 Defining the urban world
 - 9.2 Multiple geographies of the urban world
 - 9.3 Contemporary urban issues
 - 9.4 Conclusion

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

- 10 Urban segregation and social inequality Phil Hubbard
 - 10.1 Poverty and urban segregation
 - 10.2 Urban segregation and cultural stereotypes
 - 10.3 Racial segregation in the city
 - 10.4 Gentrification: reclaiming the margins?
 - 10.5 Conclusion

Learning outcomes

Further reading

- 11 Changing rural worlds a global view Warwick E. Murray
 - 11.1 Words and worlds: what is rural?
 - 11.2 Changing rural geographies
 - 11.3 Shifting rural worlds
 - 11.4 Conclusion

Learning outcomes

Further reading

- 12 Social constructions of nature James Evans
 - 12.1 Questioning nature
 - 12.2 Cultural constructions of nature
 - 12.3 Environmental myths
 - 12.4 Constructing human nature
 - 12.5 Nature and the media
 - 12.6 Conclusions

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

13 Geography, culture and global change - Cheryl McEwan and Shari Daya

- 13.1 What is culture?
- 13.2 Towards a global culture?
- 13.3 Reinventing local cultures?
- 13.4 Multi- and hybrid cultures?
- 13.5 Conclusion

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

Section 4

PRODUCTION, EXCHANGE AND CONSUMPTION - Edited by Peter Daniels

14 Geographies of the economy - Peter Daniels and Andrew Jones

- 14.1 The changing nature of economic geography
- 14.2 What is the economic problem?
- 14.3 What are economies?
- 14.4 A geographical approach to economic processes
- 14.5 The rise of a global economy
- 14.6 Global uneven development: the examples of trade and foreign direct investment
- 14.7 Places and localities in an uneven global economy
- 14.8 The rise of a new global digital economy?
- 14.9 Global re-balancing: the eastward shift

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

15 Geographies of food production - Damian Maye

- 15.1 Thinking about food
- 15.2 Geographies of food production and global supply
- 15.3 Alternative geographies of food: concepts and case studies
- 15.4 Food security: questions of scale, definition and interpretation
- 15.5 Conclusion: the ethical foodscape

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

16 The geographies of global production networks - Neil M. Coe

- 16.1 Engaging with global production networks
- 16.2 Production chains, production networks . . .
- 16.3 Geographies of production networks: spatial divisions of labour
- 16.4 The governance of production networks
- 16.5 The institutional context of production networks
- 16.6 Reshaping global production networks?

16.7 Conclusion

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

17 Service economies, spatial divisions of expertise and the second global shift - John R.

Bryson

- 17.1 Defining services
- 17.2 Two common misconceptions about service economies
- 17.3 The body, services and emotional labour
- 17.4 Services and the spatial division of expertise
- 17.5 The second global shift
- 17.6 Conclusion

Learning outcomes

Further reading

18 Geographies of money, finance and crisis - Manuel B. Aalbers and Jane

Pollard

- 18.1 Money and finance in geography
- 18.2 The global financial crisis
- 18.3 Conclusion: placing finance

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

19 Consumption and its geographies - Ian Cook and Philip Crang

- 19.1 Economic geographies of consumption
- 19.2 Branding and marketing geography
- 19.3 Local geographies of consumption
- 19.4 Consumption and geographies of (dis)connection

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

Section 5

POLITICAL GEOGRAPHIES: GEOPOLITICS, TERRITORY, STATES, CITIZENSHIP AND GOVERNANCE - Edited by James Sidaway

20 Geopolitical traditions - James Sidaway, Virginie Mamadouh and Chih Yuan Woon

- 20.1 Introducing the idea of a geopolitical tradition
- 20.2 The organic theory of the state
- 20.3 Brazilian national integration

- 20.4 Antarctic obsessions
- 20.5 Heartland
- 20.6 Nazi and Fascist geopolitics
- 20.7 Cold War geopolitics and the logics of containment
- 20.8 Cold War geopolitics in art and culture and popular geopolitics
- 20.9 New World Order, the Long War, Cold Peace and beyond
- 20.10 Conclusions: shifting hegemonies?
- Learning outcomes
- Further reading

21 Territory, space and society - David Storey

- 21.1 Territory and territoriality
- 21.2 Territoriality, race and class
- 21.3 Geographies of security, policing and protest
- 21.4 Territoriality, gender and sexuality
- 21.5 Work, rest and play
- 21.6 Conclusions
- Learning outcomes
- Further reading

22 The place of the nation-state - James Sidaway and Carl Grundy-Warr

- 22.1 Historical and geographical variability of states
- 22.2 Nations as imagined political communities
- 22.3 Constructing boundaries: upwards and outwards
- 22.4 Nation-states as symbolic systems
- 22.5 Sovereigntyscapes: shadows, borderlands and transnationalisms
- 22.6 Conclusions: the place of the nation-state?
- Learning outcomes
- Further reading

23 The geographies of citizenship - Richard Yarwood

- 23.1 Introduction: citizenship and place
- 23.2 Bounded citizenship
- 23.3 Beyond boundaries
- 23.4 Local citizenship: activist citizens
- 23.5 Activist citizens and transnational networks
- 23.6 Citizenship and everyday places
- 23.7 Conclusions
- Learning outcomes
- Further reading

24 Global governance - Klaus Dodds and Chih Yuan Woon

24.1 Conceptualizing governance

24.2 Theorizing global governance

24.3 Governing the Arctic Ocean

24.4 Governing the South China Sea

24.5 Conclusion

Learning outcomes

Further reading

Useful websites

Glossary Bibliography Index

