

Eighth Edition

HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

A CONTEMPORARY APPROACH

Julie Beardwell &
Amanda Thompson

HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

Human Resource Management

Table of Contents

Cover

Title Page

Copyright Page

Breif Contents

Contents

Guided tour

Preface

Plan of the book

How to use this book

Contributors

Acknowledgements

PART 1 HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT AND ITS ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT

Introduction to Part 1

1 An introduction to human resource management

Julie Beardwell

Objectives

Case study: Winning HRM practice: simply Business

Introduction

Definitions of HRM

The origins of HRM

Models of HRM

HRM and organisational performance

HRM in practice

The impact of HRM on the roles of HR professionals

HR competence

Concluding comments

Summary

Table of Contents

Case study: The future of work: the journey to 2022

References and further reading

2 Strategic human resource management

Heather Connolly and Julie Beardwell

Objectives

Case study: Taking the low road in big business

Introduction

Understanding the business context

Approaches to the strategy-making process

The rise of SHRM

Exploring the relationship between strategic management and SHRM: The best-fit school of SHRM

Limitations of the best-fit models of SHRM

The resource-based view of SHRM

Best-practice SHRM: high-commitment models

HRM and performance

SHRM and performance: The critique

Measuring the impact of SHRM on performance

Concluding comments

Summary

Case study: High road versus low road in the civil aviation industry

References and further reading

3 Contextualising HRM

Audrey Collin with Julie Beardwell

Objectives

Case study: Muddled language hides the effect of the gig economy

Introduction

The immediate context of HRM

The wider context of HRM

Wider contextual influences on HRM today

Ideas and theories in the wider context of HRM

Underlying assumptions

Alternative ways of thinking

Ethical issues in HRM

Concluding comments

Table of Contents

Summary

Case study: BHS report lays bare failure and culpability: Parliamentary inquiry lambasts collapsed store chains ex-owner, buyer and its directors, advisers and hangers-on

References and further reading

PART 2 RESOURCING THE ORGANISATION

Introduction to Part 2

4 HRM and the labour market

Amanda Thompson

Objectives

Case study: More than 100,000 legal roles to become automated

Introduction

The nature of labour markets

The supply of labour

Population

Workforce

Patterns of labour market participation

Labour demand

Changing patterns of demand

Changes in the occupational structure of employment

Changing forms of employment

Labour market outcomes: The quality of employment

Concluding comments

Summary

Case study: Companies struggle to fill quarter of skilled jobs vacancies

References and further reading

5 Talent management

Julie Beardwell

Objectives

Case study: Talent management in the Red Arrows

Introduction

Defining talent management

Strategic talent management

Attracting talent

Defining the talent required

Recruitment methods

Table of Contents

Selecting talent

Retaining talent

Developing talent

Concluding comments

Summary

Case study: Staff retention and staying power: Nissan builds on loyalty at Sunderland plant

References and further reading

6 Managing equality and diversity

Mike Noon

Objectives

Case study: Women in the boardroom

Introduction

Discrimination and legal protection in the workplace

Why is inequality a problem and why should managers be concerned with it?

What are the embedded and deep-rooted causes of the problems of equality and diversity within an organisation?

Two problems with institutional discrimination

Using equality and diversity policies to deal with the problems

Devising equality and diversity policies

Sameness and difference

Long and short agendas

The process of discrimination in an organisation

Concluding comments

Summary

Case study: Employees of conscience?

References and further reading

PART 3 DEVELOPING THE HUMAN RESOURCE

Introduction to Part 3

7 Learning and development

Mairi Watson and Jim Stewart

Objectives

Case study: From business strategy to training plan

Introduction

The strategic importance of learning and development for organisations

Individual learning and development

Table of Contents

Theories of learning
Theories of the process of development
Learning and development: The organisational context
Learning and development: The national perspective
Concluding comments
Summary
Case study: Learning IT systems
References and further reading

8 Leadership and management development

Mairi Watson and Deborah Price
Objectives
Case study: Saatchi chiefs comments on unambitious women come under fire from ad execs
Introduction
Defining leadership and management development (LMD)
The purposes of LMD
Developing an LMD strategy
International leadership and management development
The design of international leadership and management development programmes
LMD in different contexts
The future for LMD: The need for new thinking and new practices?
Concluding comments
Summary
Case study: In the NHS we Trust?
References and further reading

9 Organisational development

Mairi Watson
Objectives
Case study: World asks just how the Brits do it
Introduction
Definitions and development of OD
A brief history of OD
OD today: The last 10 years
The theories of OD
The techniques and practices of OD

Table of Contents

OD: Strategy, structure and culture

Concluding comments

Summary

Case study: A whole system event for real-time strategic change; use of African-influenced facilitation through lekgotla

References and further reading

PART 4 THE EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP

Introduction to Part 4

10 The employment relationship and employee rights at work

Alan J. Ryan

Objectives

Case study

Introduction

Distinguishing contractual and statutory employment rights

The importance of the contract of employment

Formation and the contract of employment

Continuation: Discrimination in employment

Termination of the employment contract

Enforcement of contractual and statutory employment rights

Contractual rights and wrongs?

Current issues

Conclusion

Summary

Case study: Age discrimination more widespread than sexism in the City

References and further reading

11 Employee engagement

Julia Pounton

Objectives

Case study: Alcoa Power and Propulsion

Introduction

Definitions from the practitioner literature

Definitions from the academic literature

Characteristics of engaged employees

Employee disengagement

Employee engagement and related concepts

Table of Contents

Employee engagement as an exchange process
Employee engagement and psychological well-being Organisational drivers of engagement
Organisational benefits of employee engagement
Employee engagement and the older worker
Measuring employee engagement
Organisational strategies for enhancing employee engagement
Governmental strategies for enhancing employee engagement
Patterns of engagement across the world
Summary
Case study: Engaging employees at Tasty Catering
References and further reading

12 Performance management

Deborah Price
Objectives
Case study: Mouldaplas
Introduction
The history of performance management
The performance imperative: Why manage performance?
What is performance management?
Performance management in practice
Approaches to performance appraisal
Types of performance appraisal
Limitations of performance measurement
Performance management or surveillance?
Collaborative performance management
Green HRM and performance management
Concluding comments
Summary
Case study: Performance improvement at TRW
References and further reading

13 Employee reward

Amanda Thompson and Alan J. Ryan
Objectives
Case study: City leaders urge radical reforms of unfair executive pay

Table of Contents

Introduction

The historical and theoretical foundations of employee reward

The development of reward systems

The design of reward systems and persistent debates

Employee reward in the contemporary era

Components of reward

Reward management and the emergence of strategic approaches to reward

Strategic reward in practice

Factors influencing organisational approaches to reward practice and pay determination

Gender pay reporting

The Equality Act 2010 (EqA), ss. 6480

National Minimum Wage Regulations 1999

Working Time Regulations 1998

Internal/organisational factors and the influence of sector

Pay determination internal or external focus?

Devising pay structures

Pay progression

Concluding comments

Summary

Case study: Zizzi cuts staff perks as minimum wage increases

References and further reading

14 Employee voice

Peter Butler

Objectives

Case study: Junior doctors reject call to maintain paediatrics during strike

Introduction

Definitions

Employee involvement

Participation

The practice of voice in the workplace

Downward communication

Upward problem-solving and team-working

From team-working to high-performance management

The impact of HPM on organisational performance

Table of Contents

Representative participation
Trade union representation
Voice and the demise of collective bargaining
Trade union decline: Rationale
Opportunities for renaissance? Trade union voice under New Labour (1997-2010): Fairness, not favours
Statutory trade union recognition: A critique
Trade union voice under the Coalition (2010-15) and Conservative (2015) governments
Trade union voice and membership loss: Strategies for renewal
Boosting trade union voice: Servicing and organising
Enter partnership
Non-union systems of employee voice: A unitary approach to collective representation?
Works councils and consultation in the European Union
The European Works Council Directive
The Information and Consultation Directive
Concluding comments
Summary
Case study: Voice issues in a retail fashion organisation
References and further reading

PART 5 COMPARATIVE HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

Introduction to Part 5

15 Comparative HRM in the context of financialisation, financial crisis and Brexit

Ian Clark

Objectives

Case study: The varied reaction of multinational car producers to Brexit?

Introduction

Comparative and international HRM: The field of scholarship

Contemporary contexts for comparative HRM: Financialisation, financial crisis, rule making and Brexit

National patterns of employment and HRM: The USA, Japan and Germany

Summary

Case study: Toyota committed to Japan

Table of Contents

Case study: Mercedes-Benz in Alabama

References and further reading

16 Employment relations in emerging economies: China and India

Anita Hammer

Objectives

Case study: New skills policy, patterns of skill formation and firms strategies in India

Introduction

Comparative capitalism in Asia

China: State-led capitalist model

India: State-guided capitalist model

China and India: A comparative assessment

Summary

Case study: Organising informal workers in India: Failures and opportunities

References and further reading

Glossary of terms and abbreviations

Index