

SELLING AND SALES MANAGEMENT

Eleventh edition

 Pearson

David Jobber
Geoffrey Lancaster
Kenneth Le Meunier-FitzHugh

Selling and Sales Management

Selling and Sales Management

Table of Contents

Front Cover

Half Title Page

Title Page

Copyright Page

Brief Contents

Contents

List of figures

List of tables

About the authors

Preface

Acknowledgements

Part One Sales perspective

1 The role of selling

Objectives

Key concepts

1.1 Background

1.2 Nature and role of selling

1.3 Characteristics of modern selling

1.4 Success factors for professional salespeople

1.5 Types of selling

1.6 Image of selling

1.7 The nature and role of sales management

1.8 Sales and marketing orientations

1.9 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Mephisto Products Ltd

Table of Contents

Discussion questions

Examination questions

References

2 The marketing concept

Objectives

Key concepts

2.1 The marketing concept

2.2 The marketing mix

2.3 The marketing mix in B2C markets

2.4 The marketing mix in B2B markets

2.5 Relationship between sales and marketing

2.6 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Cato Lifts Ltd

Discussion questions

Examination questions

References

3 Sales and marketing planning

Objectives

Key concepts

3.1 Sales and marketing planning

3.2 The planning process

3.3 Marketing planning

3.4 Generating and selecting strategies

3.5 Selling in the marketing plan

3.6 Influence of marketing plan on sales activities: strategies and tactics

3.7 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Auckland Engineering plc

Discussion questions

Examination questions

References

Part Two Sales environment

Table of Contents

4 Consumer and organisational buyer behaviour

Objectives

Key concepts

4.1 Differences between consumer and organisational buying

4.2 Consumer buying behaviour

4.3 The consumer decision-making process: how they buy

4.4 Factors affecting the consumer decision-making process

4.5 Organisational buyer behaviour

4.6 Factors affecting organisational buyer behaviour

4.7 Developments in purchasing practice

4.8 Relationship management

4.9 Conclusions

Practical exercise: The lost computer sale

Discussion questions

Examination questions

References

5 Sales contexts and customer management

Objectives

Key concepts

5.1 Environmental and managerial forces that impact on sales

5.2 Sales channels

5.3 Industrial/commercial/public authority selling

5.4 Retailing

5.5 Selling services

5.6 Sales promotions

5.7 Exhibitions and trade shows

5.8 Public relations

5.9 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Yee Wo Plastic Piping Components Ltd

Discussion questions

Examination questions

References

Table of Contents

6 International selling

Objectives

Key concepts

6.1 International context

6.2 Economic aspects globalisation

6.3 International trade at company level

6.4 Cultural factors in international selling

6.5 Organisation for international selling

6.6 Pricing and international costs

6.7 Japan a study in international selling

6.8 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Selling in China

Discussion questions

Practical exercise: Quality Kraft Carpets Ltd

Discussion questions

Examination questions

References

Part Three Sales practice

7 Sales responsibilities and preparation

Objectives

Key concepts

7.1 Sales responsibilities

7.2 Acquiring new customers

7.3 Managing the sales pipeline

7.4 Customer databases and customer relationships

7.5 The selling process

7.6 Legal aspects of selling

7.7 Conclusions

Practical exercise: The OBrien Company

Discussion questions

Practical exercise: Presenting New Standa Plus: The final word in hydraulic braking systems?

Table of Contents

Examination questions

References

8 Personal selling skills

Objectives

Key concepts

8.1 Introduction

8.2 The opening

8.3 Need and problem identification

8.4 The presentation and demonstration

8.5 Dealing with objections

8.6 Negotiation

8.7 Closing the sale

8.8 Follow-up

8.9 Recent developments in sales techniques

8.10 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Mordex Photocopier Company

Discussion questions

Practical exercise: Supermarket versus superbrand: Cooperate to compete

Examination questions

References

9 Key account management

Objectives

Key concepts

9.1 What is key account management?

9.2 Advantages and dangers to sellers of key account management

9.3 Advantages and dangers to customers of key account management

9.4 Deciding whether to use key account management

9.5 Criteria for selecting key accounts

9.6 The tasks and skills of key account management

9.7 Key account management relational development model

9.8 Global account management

9.9 Building relationships with key accounts

Table of Contents

9.10 Key account information and planning system

9.11 Key success factors for key account management

9.12 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Cloverleaf plc

Discussion questions

Examination questions

References

10 Relationship selling

Objectives

Key concepts

10.1 Developing a customer orientation

10.2 The growth of relationship marketing

10.3 From relationship marketing to relationship selling

10.4 Tactics of relationship selling

10.5 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Microcom

Discussion questions

Examination questions

References

11 Multi-channel selling

Objectives

Key concepts

11.1 What is direct marketing?

11.2 Using databases to target customers

11.3 Managing a direct marketing campaign using social media

11.4 Inbound and outbound telemarketing

11.5 Social media and selling

11.6 Conclusions

Practical exercise: ASOS: Selling online fashion

Discussion questions

Examination questions

References

Table of Contents

Part Four Sales management

12 Sales management and technology

Objectives

Key concepts

12.1 Sales management

12.2 Ethical issues

12.3 Leadership training

12.4 Sales and marketing relationships

12.5 Managing the customer portfolio

12.6 The use of technology in sales management

12.7 The impact of the internet on selling and sales management

12.8 Customer relationship management

12.9 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Gardnov Ltd

Discussion questions

Examination questions

References

13 Recruitment and selection

Objectives

Key concepts

13.1 The importance of selection

13.2 Preparation of the job description and specification

13.3 Identification of sources of recruitment and methods of communication

13.4 Designing an effective application form and preparing a shortlist

13.5 The interview

13.6 Supplementary selection aids

13.7 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Creative Media TV

Discussion questions

Practical exercise: Plastic Products Ltd

Discussion questions

Examination questions

Table of Contents

References

14 Motivation and training

Objectives

Key concepts

14.1 Motivation

14.2 Leadership

14.3 Training

14.4 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Selling craft chocolate role play

Examination questions

References

15 Structuring the sales force and rewards

Objectives

Key concepts

15.1 Organisational structure

15.2 Determining the number of salespeople

15.3 Establishing sales territories

15.4 Compensation

15.5 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Rovertronics

Practical exercise: Silverton Confectionery

Discussion question

Examination questions

References

16 Sales forecasting and budgeting

Objectives

Key concepts

16.1 Purpose

16.2 Planning

16.3 Levels of forecasting

16.4 Qualitative techniques

16.5 Quantitative techniques

Table of Contents

16.6 Budgeting purposes

16.7 Budget determination

16.8 The sales budget

16.9 Budget allocation

16.10 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Classical Reproductions Ltd

Discussion questions

Practical exercise: A recipe for success

Discussion questions

Examination questions

References

17 Sales force evaluation

Objectives

Key concepts

17.1 The sales force evaluation process

17.2 The purpose of evaluation

17.3 Setting standards of performance

17.4 Gathering information

17.5 Measures of performance

17.6 Appraisal interviewing

17.7 Conclusions

Practical exercise: Dynasty Ltd

Discussion questions

Practical exercise: Alternative Tyres Ltd

Discussion questions

Examination questions

References

Appendix: Case studies and discussion questions

Kennelworth Publications: Preparing to sell

Ask Electronics Ltd: Integrating online and offline sales

Game The Work: Serious games for serious results

Table of Contents

Lloyds Banking Group: Corporate events as a sales tool

Tourism Concern: The relevance of selling and sales management to non-profit organisations

Get It There!: Tech start-up

Index