

Tort Law

Sixth Edition

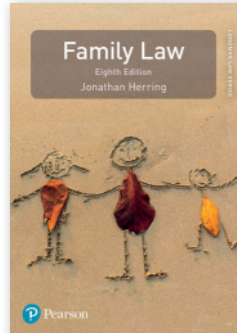

Nicholas J. McBride and Roderick Bagshaw

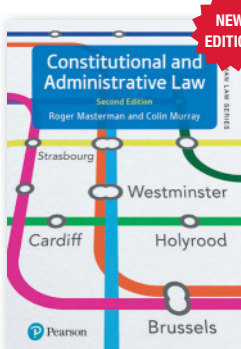

Also in the Longman Law Series

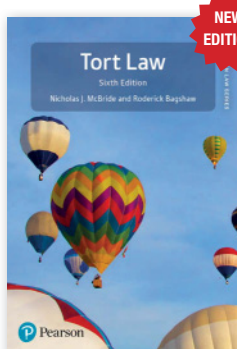

ISBN: 9781408263600

ISBN: 9781292155241

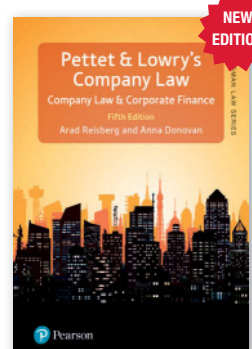

ISBN: 9781292144252

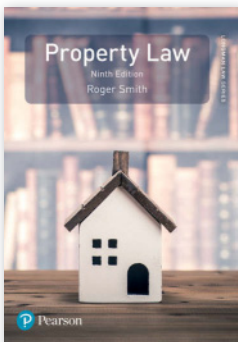

ISBN: 9781292207834

ISBN: 9781292085791

ISBN: 9781292078632

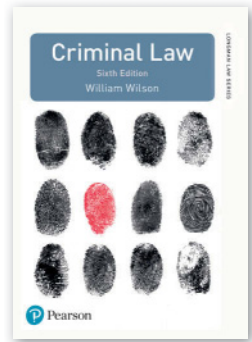

ISBN: 9781292095592

ISBN: 9781292078526

ISBN: 9781408228333

ISBN: 9781292129051

Longman Law Series titles are available to order from all good bookshops or online at: www.pearson-books.com/law

Tort Law

Table of Contents

Cover

Inside Front Cover

Title Page

Copyright Page

Dedication

Brief Contents

Detailed Contents

Acknowledgements

Publishers acknowledgements

Preface

Table of cases

Table of statutes, statutory instruments and conventions

1 The basics

1.1 The function of tort law

1.2 Rights and duties

1.3 The range of torts

1.4 Torts and wrongs

1.5 The importance of being a victim

1.6 The loss compensation model of tort law

1.7 The residual wrongs model of tort law

1.8 Tort law and human rights

1.9 Tort law and contract law

1.10 Tort law and equity

Table of Contents

- 1.11 Tort law and statute law
- 1.12 Tort law and criminal law
- 1.13 Tort law and property law
- 1.14 Tort law and strict liability
- 1.15 Insurance
- 1.16 Paying for tort law
- 1.17 Tort law as a foreign country
- Further reading

2 Trespass to the person

- 2.1 The basics
- 2.2 Conduct requirements
- 2.3 Fault requirements
- 2.4 Consent
- 2.5 Necessity
- 2.6 Statutory authority
- 2.7 Mistakes
- 2.8 Remedies
- Further reading

3 Claims in negligence

- 3.1 The basics
- 3.2 Negligence and intention
- 3.3 Negligence and other wrongs
- 3.4 Remedies for negligence

4 Duty of care: introduction

- 4.1 The basics
- 4.2 Duty of care tests
- 4.3 Duty of care factors

Table of Contents

4.4 Duty-scepticism

4.5 Risk and harm

Further reading

5 Duty of care: acts

5.1 The basics

5.2 Physical injury (1): the basic rule

5.3 Physical injury (2): harm caused by a third party

5.4 Psychiatric illness (1): general principles in accident cases

5.5 Psychiatric illness (2): the caselaw on accident cases

5.6 Psychiatric illness (3): non-accident cases

5.7 Pure distress

5.8 Harm to property

5.9 Pure economic loss (1): Hedley Byrne: the basic principle

5.10 Pure economic loss (2): Hedley Byrne: the extended principle

5.11 Pure economic loss (3): Hedley Byrne: two misconceptions

5.12 Pure economic loss (4): some difficult cases

5.13 Pure economic loss (5): explanation of the difficult cases

Further reading

6 Duty of care: omissions

6.1 The basics

6.2 Assumption of responsibility

6.3 Creation of danger

6.4 Interference

6.5 Control

6.6 Occupiers

6.7 Landlords

6.8 Employers

6.9 Bailees

Table of Contents

6.10 Carriers

6.11 Child carers

Further reading

7 Breach of duty

7.1 The basics

7.2 Objectivity

7.3 Balancing

7.4 Common practice

7.5 Breach through others

7.6 Proof

Further reading

8 Causation

8.1 The basics

8.2 The but for test

8.3 Divisible and indivisible harm

8.4 Evidential difficulties (1): the standard approach

8.5 Evidential difficulties (2): the Fairchild exception

8.6 Evidential difficulties (3): loss of a chance cases

8.7 Gregg v Scott

8.8 Overdetermination

8.9 Another solution to overdetermination?

8.10 Coincidences

8.11 Break in the chain of causation

8.12 Alternative approaches to causation

8.13 Fact and policy

Further reading

9 Actionability

Table of Contents

9.1 The basics

9.2 Remoteness of damage

9.3 Scope of duty

9.4 The SAAMCO principle

9.5 Wrongful pregnancy/birth

9.6 Mitigation

9.7 No double recovery

9.8 Public policy

Further reading

10 Occupiers liability

10.1 The basics

10.2 Occupiers Liability Act 1957

10.3 Occupiers Liability Act 1984

10.4 Warnings, disclaimers, exclusions

10.5 Liability under the general law of negligence

11 Product liability

11.1 The basics

11.2 Product

11.3 Defect

11.4 Defendants

11.5 Damage

11.6 Defences

11.7 Remedies

11.8 Discussion

12 Trespass to land

12.1 The basics

12.2 Conduct requirements

12.3 Intention and fault

Table of Contents

12.4 Defences

12.5 Title to sue

12.6 Remedies

Further reading

13 Private nuisance

13.1 The basics

13.2 Ways of committing the tort

13.3 Emanation cases (1): establishing an interference

13.4 Emanation cases (2): reasonable interferences

13.5 Emanation cases (3): establishing an unreasonable interference

13.6 Encroachment cases

13.7 Obstruction cases

13.8 Affront cases

13.9 Responsibility

13.10 Defences

13.11 Title to sue

13.12 Remedies

13.13 Peculiar forms of the tort

Further reading

14 Strict liability for dangerous things

14.1 The basics

14.2 The rule in Rylands v Fletcher: history and rationale

14.3 The rule in Rylands v Fletcher: application

14.4 Liability rules analogous to the rule in Rylands v Fletcher

14.5 Liability for dangerous animals

Further reading

15 Torts to personal property

Table of Contents

15.1 The basics

15.2 Property

15.3 Sufficient interest

15.4 Interference (1): tangible property

15.5 Interference (2): intangible property

15.6 Defences

15.7 Remedies

Further reading

16 Defamation

16.1 The basics

16.2 What is defamatory?

16.3 Reference to the claimant

16.4 Publication to a third party

16.5 Title to sue

16.6 Consent

16.7 Truth

16.8 Honest opinion

16.9 Privilege

16.10 Public interest

16.11 Other defences

16.12 Remedies

16.13 Options for reform

Further reading

17 Invasion of privacy, harassment and abuse

17.1 The basics

17.2 Misuse of private information: disclosure

17.3 Misuse of private information: access

17.4 Cases not involving wrongful disclosure or access

Table of Contents

17.5 Protection from Harassment Act 1997

17.6 The tort in Wilkinson v Downton

Further reading

18 Breach of statutory duty

18.1 The basics

18.2 Resolving hard cases

18.3 Health and safety at work

18.4 Highways

18.5 Defective premises

Further reading

19 Public nuisance

19.1 The basics

19.2 Unreasonable interference

19.3 Responsibility

19.4 Special damage

19.5 Is public nuisance irretrievably anomalous?

Further reading

20 The economic torts

20.1 The basics

20.2 Inducing a breach of contract

20.3 Analogous torts

20.4 Causing loss by unlawful means

20.5 Two-party cases

20.6 Lawful means conspiracy

20.7 Unlawful means conspiracy

20.8 Deceit

20.9 Malicious falsehood

Table of Contents

20.10 Recoverable harm

Further reading

21 Abuse of power or position

21.1 The basics

21.2 Malicious prosecution

21.3 Malicious or abusive civil proceedings

21.4 Misfeasance in public office

21.5 Liability under the Human Rights Act 1998

Further reading

22 Defences

22.1 The basics

22.2 Lack of capacity

22.3 Political immunities

22.4 Trade union immunity

22.5 Witness immunity

22.6 Abuse of process

22.7 Death

22.8 Volenti non fit injuria

22.9 Exclusion of liability

22.10 Illegality

22.11 Limitation

22.12 Contributory negligence

Further reading

23 Compensatory damages

23.1 The basics

23.2 Techniques

23.3 Assessment

Table of Contents

23.4 Reduction (1): receipt of benefit

23.5 Reduction (2): contributory negligence

23.6 Third party losses

23.7 Theories

Further reading

24 Aggravated and exemplary damages

24.1 The basics

24.2 Aggravated damages

24.3 Exemplary damages

Further reading

25 Disgorgement and licence fee damages

25.1 The basics

25.2 Disgorgement damages

25.3 Licence fee damages

Further reading

26 Nominal and vindicatory damages

26.1 The basics

26.2 Nominal damages

26.3 Vindicatory damages

Further reading

27 Injunctions

27.1 The basics

27.2 Classification of injunctions

27.3 When will an interim injunction be granted?

27.4 When will a final injunction be granted?

27.5 Reform

Further reading

Table of Contents

28 Wrongful death claims

28.1 The basics

28.2 Dependant

28.3 The parasitical nature of wrongful death claims

28.4 Loss of support

28.5 Bereavement

28.6 Funeral expenses

28.7 Limitation

28.8 Non-wrongful death

29 Other third-party claims

29.1 The basics

29.2 Congenital disabilities

29.3 Recovery of state losses

30 Accessory liability

30.1 The basics

30.2 Requirements

30.3 Limits

Further reading

31 Vicarious liability

31.1 The basics

31.2 Situations of vicarious liability

31.3 Who is an employee?

31.4 Course of employment

31.5 Vicarious liability for non-employees

31.6 Theories of vicarious liability

31.7 Two final points

Further reading

Table of Contents

32 Loss compensation schemes

32.1 The basics

32.2 Features of loss compensation schemes

32.3 Four loss compensation schemes

32.4 Evaluation of loss compensation schemes

Further reading

Bibliography

Index of problems

Index

Back Cover