

FINANCIAL TIMES Guides

.....

INVESTING

THE DEFINITIVE COMPANION
TO INVESTMENT AND THE FINANCIAL MARKETS

FOURTH EDITION

GLEN ARNOLD

PUBLISHING
FINANCIAL TIMES

The Financial Times Guide to Investing

Financial Times Guide to Investing, The

Table of Contents

Front Cover

Half Title Page

Title Page

Copyright Page

Dedication Page

Contents

About the author

Acknowledgements

Publisher's acknowledgements

What's new in the fourth edition

Introduction

PART 1: Investment basics

1 What is investment?

Partnerships

Limited liability

Ordinary shares and extraordinary returns

Shareholder rights

A money-making machine

Dividends and retained earnings

What if I want to sell?

Primary and secondary markets

Bonds

Capital structure

Table of Contents

- Stocks and shares
- Rights issues
- Financial institutions
- Be proud to be a capitalist
- A note of warning - investment and speculation

2 The rewards of investment

- Becoming a millionaire
- Simple and compound interest
- How well have investors fared in the past?
- The importance of income
- International comparison
- What about risk?
- Closing comment

3 Stock markets

- What is a stock market?
- Brokers and market makers
- Pricing - good old supply and demand
- A short history of the London Stock Exchange
- Big Bang
- The international scene
- Variety of securities traded
- LSE's primary market
- LSE's secondary market
- The Main Market (The Official List)
- The Alternative Investment Market
- NEX Exchange
- Who owns UK shares?
- The role of stock exchanges
- Useful websites

4 Buying and selling shares

Table of Contents

Stockbroker services
Choosing a stockbroker
Finding prices and other information
Getting the most out of financial websites
Useful websites for discussion boards
What happens when I buy or sell shares?
An order-driven trading system
The trading system for less liquid shares - SETSqx
What happens after dealing?
Paying for your shares
Internet dealing
Direct market access
Transferring shares without brokers
Useful websites

PART 2: The investment spectrum

5 Pooled investments

Unit trusts
Useful websites
Open-ended investment companies
Exchange traded funds
Investment trusts (investment companies)
Useful websites for investment trusts
Investment platforms or supermarkets
Useful websites
With-profits policies
Insurance company bonds
Stock market-linked bonds
Money markets
Hedge funds
Bringing home the significance of high fees

Table of Contents

6 Bonds

- Gilts
- Corporate bonds
- Credit rating
- Useful websites
- High-yield (junk) bonds
- Convertible bonds
- Foreign bonds
- Eurobonds
- Peer-to-peer lending

7 Unusual share investment

- Business angels (informal venture capitalists)
- Useful websites
- Crowdfunding
- Useful websites
- Venture capital and other private equity
- Private equity categories
- Overseas shares
- Useful websites

8 Derivatives and options

- What is a derivative?
- What is an option?
- Share options
- Call option holders (call option buyers)
- Call option writers
- LIFFE share options
- Put options
- How to trade options
- Using share options to reduce risk: hedging
- Using options to reduce losses

Table of Contents

Index options

Useful websites

9 Futures

Marking to market and margins

Settlement

Equity index futures

Buying and selling futures

10 Spread betting, contracts for difference and warrants

Spread betting

Money up-front

Useful websites

Contracts for difference

Warrants

Covered warrants

Useful websites

PART 3: Company analysis

11 Company accounts

Oh no, not numbers again!

How to obtain reports

The report and accounts

Profit and loss account

Balance sheet (statement of financial position)

Cash flow statement

Chairman's statement

Chief executive's review

Financial review

Directors' report and business review

Auditors' report

Five-year summary

Table of Contents

Trading statements

Further reading

12 Key investment ratios and measures

From the financial pages

Performance ratios and measures

Financial health ratios and measures

Forward-looking measures

Further reading

13 Tricks of the accounting trade

Goodwill

Fair value

What was our revenue again?

Exceptional items

Stock (inventory) valuation

Depreciation

Capitalisation

Off-balance-sheet items

Share (stock) options

Missing the profits and assets in investee companies

Other tricks

Concluding comments

Further reading

14 Analysing industries

The competitive floor

The five competitive forces

Threat of entry

Intensity of rivalry of existing companies

The threat from substitutes

Buyer (customer) power

Supplier power

Table of Contents

Industry evolution

Concluding comments

Further reading

15 The competitive position of the firm

The TRRACK system

What makes resources extraordinary?

Investment in resources

Leveraging resources and over-exploiting them

Concluding comments

Further reading

PART 4: Managing your portfolio

16 Companies issuing shares

New issues

Rights issues

Other equity issues

Scrip issues

Share buy-backs and special dividends

17 Taxation and investors

Stamp duty

Tax on dividends

Capital gains tax

Interest-bearing instruments

Inheritance tax

Individual savings accounts

Personal pensions

Enterprise Investment Scheme

Venture capital trusts

Tax-efficient charitable gifts

18 Mergers and takeovers

Table of Contents

Merger motives

Financing mergers

The rules of the takeover game

Useful websites and further reading

Who wins from mergers?

Why do mergers fail?

Further reading

19 Investor protection

Wayward financial services professionals

Regulation of markets

Regulation of companies

Self-protection

Scams

20 Measuring performance: indices and risk

Indices

Risk

Useful websites and further reading

21 Investment clubs

How to set up a club

The unit valuation system

Bank account

Brokers

Tax

Glossary

Index

Back Cover