

Engage!

Eighth edition

Marketing Communications

touchpoints, sharing and disruption

Chris Fill and Sarah Turnbull

Pearson

Marketing Communications

Marketing Communications

Table of Contents

Front Cover

Half Title Page

Title Page

Copyright Page

Brief contents

Contents

Preface

Acknowledgements

Publishers acknowledgements

Part 1 Introduction to marketing communications

1 Introducing marketing communications

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Defining marketing communications

The engaging role of marketing communications

The scope of marketing communications

The tasks of marketing communications

Delivering consumer experiences

Environmental influences

Internal influences

Market influences

External influences

The marketing communications mix

Key points

Case: Fearless Girl

Review questions

References

2 Marketing communications: issues, influences and disruption

Aims and learning objectives

Table of Contents

Introduction

International issues and influences

Standardisation versus adaptation

Global consumer culture theory

Technological issues and influences

Big Data

Data management platforms

Programmatic technologies

Mobile

Consolidation and convergence

Ethical and societal influences

Duties and consequences

Ethical issues in marketing communications

Privacy and respect

Taste and decency

Incentives, bribery and extortion

Industry influences

The UK marketing communications industry

Relationships

Advertising regulations

Trends in communications expenditure

Key points

Case: Channel 4 Paralympics

Review questions

References

3 Communication: theory and practice

Aims and learning objectives

An introduction to the process of communications

A linear model of communications

Source/encoding

Signal

Decoding/receiver

Feedback/response

Noise

Realms of understanding

Issues associated with the linear communication process

The influencer model of communications

Interactional model of communications

Table of Contents

Word-of-mouth communications

- Definition and motives
- Opinion leaders
- Opinion formers
- Opinion followers
- Developing brands with word-of-mouth communications
- Celebrity endorsers

Amplification

Relational approaches to communications

Process of adoption

Process of diffusion

Key points

Case: How LOréal Paris Age Perfect transformed its fortunes by showing older women that they are still worth it

Review questions

References

4 Classical theories and interpretations of buyer behaviour

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Customer journeys

Information processing

- Perception
- Marketing and perception
- Learning
- Attitudes

Decision making

- Consumer purchase decision-making process
- Involvement theory
- Two approaches to decision-making
- Impact on communications
- Organisational decision-making process

Key points

Case: How Sixt challenged car hire culture, and changed its fortunes

Review questions

References

5 Contemporary interpretations of buyer behaviour

Aims and learning objectives

Table of Contents

Introduction

Fear, uncertainty and perceived risk

Digital and mobile influences on buyer behaviour

Usage

Multitasking and layering media

Attention levels

Visual vocabulary

Chat

User-generated content

Hedonic consumption

Hedonic contamination

Ethical consumption

Why buy ethically?

Communication in an ethical market

Tribal consumption

Behavioural economics

Key points

Case: Help to Buy

Review questions

References

6 How does marketing communications work?

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Engagement and the role of marketing communications

How does marketing communications work?

HMCW interpretation 1: sequential models

HMCW interpretation 2: changing attitudes

HMCW interpretation 3: shaping relationships

HMCW interpretation 4: developing significant value

HMCW interpretation 5: cognitive processing

Comment

Key points

Case: Costa: creating a nation of coffee lovers

Review questions

References

Part 2 Managing marketing communications

Table of Contents

7 Marketing communications: strategies and planning

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Marketing communications strategies

MC strategy interpretation 1: positioning strategies

MC strategy interpretation 2: audience strategies

MC strategy interpretation 3: platform strategies

MC strategy interpretation 4: configuration strategies

Planning marketing communications

The marketing communications planning framework

Elements of the plan

Context analysis

Communications objectives

Marketing communications strategy

Coordinated communications mix

Resources

Scheduling and implementation

Evaluation and control

Feedback

Links and essential points

Key points

Case: Sr Toronjo

Review questions

References

8 Marketing communications: objectives and positioning

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

The role of objectives

The role of brand communications objectives and plans

The sales school

The communications school

Derivation of campaign objectives

Practitioner-based marketing communications objectives

Business objectives

Behavioural objectives

Intermediate objectives

SMART objectives

Table of Contents

Positioning

The positioning concept

Managing positions

Perceptual mapping

Positioning strategies

Product features

Price/quality

Use

Product class dissociation

User

Competitor

Benefit

Heritage or cultural symbol

Repositioning

Key points

Case: Repositioning Axe

Review questions

References

9 The communications industry: structure, operations and finance

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Dimensions of the UK marketing communications industry

Agency types and structures

Selecting an agency

Agency operations

Agency remuneration

Budgeting for communications

The role of the communications budget

Benefits of budgeting

Difficulties associated with budgeting for communications

Budgeting techniques and approaches

Which methods are most used?

Budgeting for the other elements of the communications mix

Key points

Case: BBC Creative: solving the BBCs digital challenge

Review questions

Table of Contents

References

10 Evaluation and metrics

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

The role of evaluation in planned communications

Advertising

Pre-testing unfinished ads

Pre-testing finished ads

Physiological measures

Post-testing

Enquiry tests

Recall tests

Recognition tests

Sales tests

Other methods of evaluation

Tracking studies

Financial analysis

Likeability

Marketing mix modelling

Public relations

Corporate image

Crisis management

Measuring the fulfilment of brand promises

Online communications

Mobile

Social media

Key points

Case: Care Counts Laundry Program

Review questions

References

11 Branding and marketing communications

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Brand characteristics

The task of marketing communications in branding

Associations and personalities

Brand ambassadors

Table of Contents

Delivering the brand associations

Brand delivery: above-the-line communications

Brand delivery: through-the-line communications

Brand delivery: below-the-line communications

Brand delivery: on-the-line communications

Brand delivery: around-the-line communications

Building brands with marketing communications

Business-to-business branding

Branding in an interactive environment

Employee branding

External communications

Internal communications

Intellectual and emotional aspects

Brand equity

Key points

Case: McVities: waking the sleeping giant

Review questions

References

12 Integrated marketing communications

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

A strategic view

The forces for IMC

Definitions of IMC

What is to be integrated?

Communications tools or disciplines

Messages

Media

Touchpoints

Marketing mix

Brands and structures

Strategy

Employees

Technology

Agencies

Building IMC programmes

Interpretations of IMC

Table of Contents

Interpretation 1: IMC as harmonisation

Interpretation 2: IMC as a perspective

Interpretation 3: IMC as a portfolio

Interpretation 4: relational IMC

Key points

Case: Snickers: thinking like a Hollywood blockbuster

Review questions

References

Part 3 The marketing communications mix

13 Advertising: role, forms and strategy

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

The role of advertising

Defining advertising

Selling propositions

The use of emotion in advertising

Types of advertising

Advertising models and concepts

The elaboration likelihood model

Eclectic models of advertising

The Strong and the Weak theories of advertising

Using advertising strategically

The FCB matrix

The RossiterPercy grid

Consumer-generated advertising

Key points

Case: Bolia.com: selling sofas in a financial meltdown

Review questions

References

14 Public relations: principles and practice

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Which publics?

A framework of public relations

The press agency/publicity model

The public information model

Table of Contents

The two-way asymmetric model

The two-way symmetric model

Public relations and relationship management

Objectives of public relations

Cause-related marketing

Public relations: methods and techniques

Media relations

Press releases

Multimedia usage in media relations

Press conferences

Interviews

Publicity and events

Media catching

Forms of public relations

Lobbying

Investor relations

Corporate advertising

Crisis communications

Key points

Case: The Swedish Number

Review questions

References

15 Sponsorship

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

The growth and development of sponsorship

Sponsorship objectives

How sponsorship might work

Theoretical aspects of sponsorship

Types of sponsorship

Sports sponsorship

Broadcast sponsorship

Arts sponsorship

Other forms of sponsorship

Ambush marketing

The role of sponsorship in the communications mix

Key points

Table of Contents

Case: Emirates: activating football sponsorship

Review questions

References

16 Direct marketing and personal selling

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

The role of direct marketing

Types of direct brand

Type 1: complementary tool

Type 2: primary differentiator

Type 3: sales channel

Type 4: brand vehicle

The growth of direct marketing

Growth driver 1: technology

Growth driver 2: changing market context

Growth driver 3: changing organisational expectations

The role of data

Direct-response media

Email

Mobile

Social

Direct mail

Telemarketing

Inserts

Print

Door-to-door

Radio and television

Personal selling

The tasks of personal selling

The role of personal selling

When personal selling should be a major part of the communications mix

Complexity

Buyer significance

Communications effectiveness

Channel network factors

The role of social media in personal selling

Strategic account management

Table of Contents

Key account management

Global account management

Key points

Case: Direct Line: we solve problems

Review questions

References

17 Sales promotion, field marketing and brand experience

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Understanding the value of sales promotions

The role of sales promotion

Short termism

Managerial accountability

Brand performance

Brand expansion

Competition for shelf space

Sales promotion plans: the objectives

An overview of how sales promotions work

Sales promotions: methods and techniques

Retention programmes

Field marketing

Brand experience

Key points

Case: Doors of Thrones

Review questions

References

18 Brand placement, exhibitions, packaging and licensing

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Brand placement

Characteristics of brand placement

Placement issues

Trade shows and exhibitions

Reasons to use exhibitions

Characteristics of exhibitions and trade fairs

Exhibitions as a form of marketing communications

Table of Contents

Multimedia and trade shows
Marketing management of exhibitions
Hospitality and events

Packaging

The communications dimensions of packaging

Licensing

Key points

Case: Product placement within your own product: The NFLs brand communications Su-per Bowl LII strategy

Review questions

References

19 Messages and creativity

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Message source

Establishing credibility

Credibility established by the initiator

Credibility established by a spokesperson

Sleeper effects

Structural elements in a message

Message balance

Conclusion drawing

One- and two-sided messages

Order of presentation

Message appeals

Information-based appeals

Emotions- and feelings-based appeals

Copycat messaging

Advertising tactics

Informational motives

Transformational motives

Creativity

Creativity and attention

The importance of context

The creative process

Message framing

Storytelling

Table of Contents

User-generated content (UGC)

Sourcing content

Key points

Case: John Lewis: Buster the Boxer

Review questions

References

20 Media: principles and practice

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Media classification by form

Media classification by source

Media classification by function

Interactive media

So, what are interactive media?

Core technologies

Characteristics of interactive media

What interactive media enable users to do

Linear media

Print media

Broadcast media

Outdoor media

In-store media

Cinema

Ambient media

Guerrilla tactics

Multichannel campaigns

Retailing in a multichannel environment

Key differences between linear and interactive media

Key points

Case: Dumb Ways to Die

Review questions

References

21 Digital and other interactive media

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Interactive media advertising

Table of Contents

Banner ads

Online behavioural advertising

Native advertising

Pop-ups

Video

Bumpers

Online gaming

Search engine marketing

Search engine optimisation

Pay-per-click searches

Voice

Social media

Social networks

Weblogs

Microblogging

Viral marketing

Online communities

Other forms of interactive media

Email marketing

Short message service (SMS)

Mobile device applications

Affiliate marketing

Augmented and virtual reality

Key points

Case: Fridge Raiders: less media, more conversation

Review questions

References

22 Media planning in a digital age

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Media planning and the media mix

Media switching behaviour

Vehicle selection

Media planning concepts

Reach and coverage

Frequency

Gross rating point

Effective frequency

Table of Contents

Recency planning

Media usage and attitudes

Efficiency

Automation and the block plan

- The block plan

- Automation and programmatic technologies

- Programmatic planning issues

- Blockchains

The cross-media mix

Campaign media planning

- Pre-store

- In-store

- Post-store

The plan

- The ecosystem

- The schematic

- Optimisation within channel

- Monitoring and course correcting

- Measurement

Key points

Case: Narellan Pools: diving into data makes a big splash

Review questions

References

Author index

Subject index

Back Cover