

DIMOND'S LEGAL ASPECTS OF NURSING

A definitive guide to law for nurses

EIGHTH EDITION

Richard Griffith and Iwan Dowie

Pearson

Dimond's Legal Aspects of Nursing

A Definitive Guide to Law for Nurses

Dimond's Legal Aspects of Nursing

Table of Contents

Front Cover

Half Title Page

Title Page

Copyright Page

Contents

Guided tour

Table of cases

Table of statutes

Abbreviations

Preface to eighth edition

Acknowledgements

Publishers acknowledgements

Part I General principles affecting all nurses

1 Introduction: professionalism, the legal system and human rights

Professionalism

Criminal liability

Professional liability

Civil liability

Accountability to employer

Professionalism and accountability

Sources of law

Differences between civil and criminal law

Civil actions

Judicial review

Legal personnel and legal complaints

Table of Contents

Legal language

Human Rights Act 1998

Freedom of Information Act 2000

Devolved law-making powers

2 Actions in the criminal courts and defences to criminal charges

Initial stages of arrest and prosecution

Magistrates courts

Plea and Case Management Hearing

Crown Court proceedings

Elements of a crime

Case of Beverley Allitt

Case of Sister Salisbury

Case of Nurse Patel

Offence of ill-treatment or wilful neglect

Case of Nurse Amaro

Negligence as a crime

Administration of drug by epidural instead of intravenous injection

Defences

Criminal injuries compensation

3 Liability in a civil court case for negligence

Duty of care

Standard of care

Causation

Liable for what?

Harm

4 Specific problem areas in civil liability: personal liability of the nurse, vicarious liability of the employer and managerial issues

Negligence in communication

Inexperience

Team liability and apportionment of responsibility

Taking instructions: refusal to obey

Nurse as manager

Table of Contents

- Pressure on the manager
- Vicarious liability of employer
 - In the course of employment
- Liability for negligence of volunteers
- Duty of care and liability for independent contractors
- Direct liability of employer
- Indemnity from the employee at fault
- Pressure from inadequate resources
- Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 and whistleblowing

5 Statutory functions and management of the NHS

- National Health Service
- White Paper Equity and Excellence: Liberating the NHS
- Enforcement of statutory duties
- NHS England (the National Health Service Commissioning Board)
- Clinical commissioning groups
- The mandate
- NHS foundation trusts
- NHS Improvement (formerly Monitor)
- Clinical governance
- Duty of quality
- The Care Quality Commission
- National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE)
- NHS 111 and walk-in clinics
- NHS inquiries
- Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust Inquiry
- The NHS Constitution
- NHS and the private sector

6 Progress of a civil claim: defences and compensation

- Civil proceedings
- Compensation in civil proceedings for negligence
- Defences to a civil action
- Clinical Negligence Scheme for Trusts (CNST) and the NHS Litigation Authority

Table of Contents

(NHSLA)

NHS Redress Act 2006

Reforms to civil litigation

7 Consent to treatment and informing the patient

Basic principles

Requirements of a valid consent

How should consent be given?

Right to refuse treatment

Taking ones own discharge

Definition of mental capacity under the Mental Capacity Act 2005

Hunger strikes

Amputation of healthy limbs

Defences to an action for trespass to the person

Mental Capacity Act 2005

Mental Health Act 1983

Giving information to a patient prior to consent being obtained

Non-therapeutic procedures

Giving information to the terminally ill patient

Notifying the patient of negligence by a colleague

No decision about me, without me

8 Data protection: confidentiality and access

General Data Protection Regulation (including Data Protection Act 2018)

Duty of confidentiality

Caldicott Guardians

Freedom of Information Act 2000

DNA databases

Access to Medical Reports Act 1988

9 Record keeping, statements and evidence in court

Record keeping

Statements

Evidence in court

Defamation

Table of Contents

Internet and social media

10 The nurse and employment law

Human rights

Contract of employment

Statutory provisions covering employment

Unfair dismissal

Trade union rights

Public and private employees

Discrimination: The Equality and Human Rights Commission

Equality Act 2010

Agenda for Change

11 The nurse as a registered professional

Background to the establishment of the Nursing and Midwifery Council

Nursing and Midwifery Council

Registration and removal

Professional standards and codes of practice

Education and training

Post-registration revalidation and continuing professional development(CPD)

Fitness to Practise Annual Report 2016/17

Professional Standards Authority for Health and Social Care (PSA) (formerly the Council for Healthcare Regulatory Excellence (CHRE))

Nursing associates

12 Health and safety and the nurse

Statutory provisions

Corporate manslaughter and corporate homicide

Common law duties: employers duty

Remedies available to an injured employee

Special areas

Part II Specialist areas

13 Children and young persons

Consent to treatment

Table of Contents

- Safeguarding children
- Parental care and the nurse
- Disciplining a child
- Education of children in hospital
- Adolescents
- Deprivation of liberty of children and young persons
- Court proceedings and the child or young person

14 The nurse on the gynaecology ward

- Abortion
- Sterilisation
- Female circumcision

15 Acute care

- Civil liability procedures and practices in theatre
- The theatre nurse and the scope of professional practice
- Accidents in the theatre
- Consent in the theatre
- Recovery room nursing
- Transfusions and blood contamination
- Organ transplantation
- Intensive care units: resource pressures
- Review of critical care services

16 Learning disabilities and safeguarding people

- Acting in the best interests of a mentally incapacitated adult
- Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards (DoLS) (Bournewood)
- Carers
- Court of Protection and Code of Practice
- White Paper Valuing People
- Safeguarding vulnerable adults
- Sexual relations and related issues
- Property
- Direct payments
- Registration and inspections

Table of Contents

17 Nurse educator and researcher

- NMC and standards in education
- Record keeping by teachers
- Liability for instructing others
- Hearing about unsound practices
- Employment law
- Legal aspects of research
- Health Research Authority (HRA)
- Confidentiality
- Consent
- Health Education England

18 Legal aspects of the care of older people

- Rights to care
- National Service Framework for Older People
- Intermediate care
- Consent to treatment
- Force, restraint and assault
- Medication and the confused older patient
- Dementia
- Standard of care
- Risk management
- Abuse of older people
- Mental Capacity Act 2005 and decision making for the mentally incapacitated adult

19 Nursing people with mental health problems or learning disability

- Informal patients
- Patients detained under mental health legislation
- Holding power of the nurse
- Compulsory detention of an informal inpatient
- Compulsory admission
- Definition and role of nearest relative
- Role of the approved mental health professional

Table of Contents

Informing the patient and relatives

Consent to treatment provisions

Community provisions

20 Accident and emergency, outpatients, genito-urinary departments and day surgery

Accident and emergency department

Outpatients department

Genito-urinary medicine

Day surgery

21 Human fertility and genetics

Artificial insemination

Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 1990 as amended by 2008 Act

In vitro fertilisation (IVF)

Embryos

Confidentiality

Surrogacy

Conscientious objection

Genetics

Gene therapy and genetic diagnosis

Gender selection

Genetic screening and testing

Cloning

22 Community and primary care nursing

NHS and social services provision

Funding of long-term care

Care Act 2014

Human rights and care homes

Delayed discharges

Carers

Negligence

Safety of the community professional

Consent to treatment

Table of Contents

- Protection of property
- Disclosure of information
- Criminal suspicion
- Standards: care homes
- Community matrons
- The specialist community public health nurse
- The school nurse
- The clinic nurse
- The practice nurse
- Developments in technology and structure

23 Scope of professional practice, clinical nurse specialist and consultant nurse

- Scope of professional practice
- Delegation and supervision
- Nurse consultants
- Clinical nurse specialists and specialist nurses
- Concerns about developments in scope of professional practice
- Scope of professional practice in primary care
- Scope of professional practice in theatre nursing
- Scope of professional practice in emergency nursing
- Scope of professional practice and X-rays
- NHS 111 (formerly NHS Direct) and walk-in clinics
- Modern matrons
- Agency nurses
- Healthcare support workers

Part III General areas

24 Legal aspects of property

- Principles of liability
- Administrative failures
- Exclusion of liability
- Property of the mentally incapacitated patient
- Mental Capacity Act 2005

Table of Contents

- Day-to-day care of money
- Power of attorney
- Court of Protection
- Protecting patients from relatives
- Returning the patients property
- Staff property
- Gifts

25 Legal aspects of public health

- Public health legislation
- Notifiable diseases
- Cross-infection control
- Health and Social Care Act 2008
- Health Protection Agency (now Public Health England)
- Public Health England
- Tuberculosis (TB)
- Hepatitis
- HIV-infected persons and AIDS patients
- Vaccination
- Blood donors
- Confidentiality

26 Handling complaints

- Methods of complaining
- Handling complaints
- Hospital Complaints Procedure Act 1985 and the Wilson Report
- Complaints procedure 2004
- Complaints procedure 2004 and 2006
- Complaints procedure 2009
- The Health Service and Parliamentary Ombudsman (HSC)
- The House of Commons Select Committee
- Healthwatch England
- Local Healthwatch (formerly LINKS)
- Independent Complaints Advocacy Service (ICAS)

Table of Contents

Patient Advice and Liaison Services (PALS)

Other quality assurance methods

Complaints relating to detained patients

Secretary of State inquiries

The NHS Constitution

Review of NHS complaints system

27 Legal aspects of medicines

General principles

Controlled drugs

Problems in the administration of medicine

Management of errors or incidents in the administration of medicines

Self-administration by patients

Covert administration of medicines

Nurse as prescriber

Group protocols or patient group directions

Nurse prescribing: independent and dependent (subsequently known as supplementary) prescribers

Role of the pharmacist

Safety of medicines

Product liability and drugs

Misuse of drugs

National Prescribing Centre

Availability of medicines within the NHS

28 End-of-life care and death

End-of-life care

Definition of death

Importance of exact time of death

Legality of switching machines off

Not for resuscitation

Patients refusing treatment

Relatives and treatment of the patient

Advance decisions to refuse treatment (living wills)

Table of Contents

Certification and registration of death
Disposal of the body
Post-mortems
Deaths that have to be reported to the coroner
Inquests
Recommendations of the Shipman Inquiry
The Coroners and Justice Act 2009: overview
Property of the deceased
Wills

29 Complementary and alternative therapies

Definitions of complementary and alternative therapies
The NMC practitioner as a complementary therapist
Liability for using complementary therapy at work
Patients receiving complementary therapies
House of Lords Select Committee
Herbal medicines and acupuncture
Complementary and Natural Healthcare Council (CNHC)

30 The future

Glossary

Further reading

Websites

Index

Back Cover