

FOUNDATIONS SERIES

LAW OF TORT

John Cooke

Pearson

Fourteenth Edition

LAW OF TORT

Law of Tort

Table of Contents

Front Cover

Half-Title Page

Title Page

Copyright Page

Brief contents

Contents

Publishers acknowledgements

Preface

Table of cases

Table of statutes and other statutory material

Part 1 General principles of tort law

1 General principles

Introduction

What is a tort?

Elements of a tort

The interests protected

The role of policy

Fault and strict liability

Objectives of tort

Alternative systems of compensation

A compensation culture?

The boundaries of tort

The Human Rights Act 1998

Human rights and tort law

Access to justice

Table of Contents

Summary

Further reading

Part 2 The tort of negligence

2 General principles of negligence

Elements of the tort

History of negligence

The interests protected

Problem areas

Liability in contract and tort

Summary

Further reading

3 Duty of care

Introduction

Historical development

The present position

Immunity, human rights and public policy

Assumption of responsibility

Conclusion

Summary

Further reading

4 Psychiatric damage

Introduction

Historical development

The basis of the present law

Types of claim

Primary victims

Secondary victims

Problems raised

The medical background and public scepticism

Conclusion

Summary

Table of Contents

Further reading

5 Economic loss

Introduction

Historical development

Acts and statements

Arguments against the recovery of pure economic loss in negligence

Development of the Hedley Byrne principle

Application of the tests in specific fact situations

Development of liability for economic loss outside the Hedley Byrne principle

The extended Hedley Byrne principle

Conclusions

Summary

Further reading

6 Liability for omissions and third parties

Introduction

Liability for omissions

Liability for the acts of third parties

Summary

Further reading

7 Liability of public authorities

Introduction

The framework for actions

First phase development of the common law

Second phase the influence of human rights

Liability of the police

The social and education cases

Summary

Further reading

8 Breach of duty and proof of negligence

Introduction

The reasonable person test

Factors determining negligence

Table of Contents

How does a court judge negligence?

What is fault?

A compensation culture?

Proof of negligence

Summary

Further reading

9 Causation and remoteness of damage

Introduction

Factual causation

Remoteness of damage

Novus actus interveniens

Summary

Further reading

10 Defences to negligence

Introduction

Volenti non fit injuria

Contributory negligence

Ex turpi causa

The rescue cases

Summary

Further reading

Part 3 Specific areas of negligence and breach of statutory duty

11 Defective premises

Introduction

Occupiers liability

Landlords liability

Builders liability

Summary

Further reading

12 Defective products

Introduction

Table of Contents

Liability in contract

Negligence action

The narrow rule in Donoghue v Stevenson

Consumer Protection Act 1987

Compensation culture

Summary

Further reading

13 Breach of statutory duty

Introduction

Does the statute give rise to an action for damages?

Was the duty owed to the claimant?

Breach of duty

Causation

Defences

Breach of statutory duty and negligence

European legislation

Summary

Further reading

14 Employers liability

Introduction

The employers personal duty of care

Defences

Stress at work

Summary

Further reading

15 Medical negligence and related issues

Introduction

The battery action

Consent and negligence

The negligence action

Summary

Further reading

Table of Contents

Part 4 Torts based on land

16 Trespass to land

Introduction

Forms of trespass to land

Title of the claimant

Defences

Remedies

Summary

Further reading

17 Nuisance

Introduction

Statutory nuisances

Public nuisance

Private nuisance

Nuisance and fault

Remedies

Defences

Nuisance and human rights

Summary

Further reading

18 Rylands v Fletcher and liability for fire

Introduction

The claimants case

Defences

The future of Rylands v Fletcher

Liability for fire

Summary

Further reading

Part 5 Miscellaneous torts

19 Trespass to the person

Introduction

Table of Contents

Trespass to the person

Battery

Assault

Defences to assault and battery

False imprisonment

Intentional infliction of emotional or physical harm

Summary

Further reading

20 Defamation and malicious falsehood

Introduction

Reform

Features of defamation

Damages

Libel and slander

The claimants case

Defamatory meaning

Reference to the claimant

Publication

Libel and internet publication

Defences

Truth (justification)

Honest opinion

Absolute privilege

Qualified privilege

Remedies

Parties

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

Defamation and the Human Rights Act 1998

Malicious falsehood

Summary

Further reading

21 Privacy Tort of misuse of private information

Table of Contents

Introduction

What is privacy?

The general principle

The position in English law

Case law and principles on privacy since the Human Rights Act 1998

Limits to protection

Remedies

Conclusions on privacy

Summary

Further reading

PART 6 Parties, defences and remedies

22 Vicarious liability

Introduction

Justification for imposing vicarious liability

Scope of vicarious liability

Who is an employee?

In the course of employment

The employers indemnity

Employers and independent contractors

Conclusion

Summary

Further reading

23 Limitation

Introduction

Accrual of causes of action

Limitation periods

Defective buildings and latent damage

Miscellaneous limitation periods

Fraud or concealment

Summary

Further reading

24 General defences

Table of Contents

Introduction

Mistake

Inevitable accident

Necessity

Summary

25 Remedies

Introduction

Damages

Effect of death on an award of damages for personal injuries

What is damage?

Injunctions

Self-help

Summary

Further reading

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

INDEX

Back Cover