'Successful leaders achieve lasting change through effective coaching. This book shows you how, starting today.'

Marshall Goldsmith, New York Times #1 bestselling author of Triggers, Mojo and What Got You Here Won't Get You There

How to lead your team effectively in 10 minutes a day

Phil Renshaw and Jenny Robinson

Praise for Coaching On the Go

'I'm looking forward to using this book to teach leadership to university students as well as with executives. It's great that you can read it from start to finish as well as dig in when you have a specific problem.'

Lina Sors Emilsson, ReSors Technology AB, Sweden and Uppsala University

'Most coaching books tell you how to coach. This one shows you.'

Paul Smith, bestselling author, Lead with a Story and The 10 Stories Great

Leaders Tell

'A novel and useful way to think about coaching. Relevant to every leader.'

Sheelagh Whitaker, Global NED; author, Evaline: A Feminist's Tale

'Great companies need great managers who see it as their responsibility to bring out the potential and performance of their people. Key to this is the ability to coach in the moment, or on-the-go within the context of the job. Phil and Jenny's book, Coaching On the Go, brings this to life.'

John Millea, Director People Development, SAP

'A completely useable, practical guide to developing successful coaching techniques in order to be a more effective leader.'

Blair Illingworth, CEO Stirling Plc

'If you are a busy leader, wanting to increase your effectiveness and impact, this book helps equip you with techniques to do just that. It is easy to digest and keeps it simple, helping you to ask more empowering questions to become a more effective leader.'

Karena Freeman, Executive Partner, Global Research and Advisory Firm

'The skills you need to coach are clearly explained with lots of great ideas to put them into practice.'

Subhan Iswahyudi, B2B Sales Coach; Leadership Development Expert; Faculty Member, Telkom Indonesia Corporate University

'This fun and well-informed manual helps to make practical coaching more accessible to everyone.'

Matt Nixon, CEO coach; former Vice President, OE, Shell

'Wow! What a refreshing approach to help someone learn how to use a coaching style to bring the best out of people in a most human and natural way!'

Lester Coupland, Executive Development Director, Cranfield University

'I love this book. Jenny and Phil show you how all leaders can improve their coaching skills. Follow their simple steps wherever you are on the journey and you will be a more successful leader.'

Andrew Hall, Partner, Haywood Mann

Coaching on the Go

Table of Contents

Front Cover

Half Title Page

Title Page

Copyright Page

Contents

About the authors

Dedications

Introduction

Part 1: About this book

Welcome on board

The safety briefing

Navigation help with classic leadership challenges

PART 2: The main flight

Chapter 1 First things first: chocks away!

Chapter 2 Giving feedback: revving up

Chapter 3 Being present: lift-off

Chapter 4 Using Pause-Points: wheels up

Chapter 5 Building trust and rapport: soaring high

Chapter 6 Creating awareness: facing air turbulence

Table of Contents

Chapter 7 Changing perspective: admiring the view from 35,000 feet

Chapter 8 Understanding through empathy: maintaining your altitude

Chapter 9 Succeeding together: onward and upward

Chapter 10 Creating actions to move forward: smooth landings

Chapter 11 Learning to learn: time for reflection

PART 3: The Pilots manual

Chapter 12 More about YOU

Chapter 13 More about OTHERS

Chapter 14 More great TOOLS

Chapter 15 More about IS IT WORKING?

Chapter 16 More about PROFESSIONAL COACHING

Before you disembark

Appendix: Coaching competencies

Index

Back Cover

