

ACCOUNTING AND FINANCE FOR NON-SPECIALISTS

Twelfth Edition

Peter Atrill
Eddie McLaney

ACCOUNTING AND FINANCE FOR NON-SPECIALISTS

Accounting and Finance for Non-Specialists

Table of Contents

Front Cover

Half Title

Tilte Page

Copyright Page

Brief contents

Contents

Preface

1 Introduction to accounting and finance

Introduction

What are accounting and finance?

Who are the users of accounting information?

Providing a service

Weighing up the costs and benefits

Accounting as an information system

Management accounting and financial accounting

Scope of this book

The changing face of accounting

Accounting for ethics

Why do I need to know anything about accounting and finance?

The quest for wealth creation

Meeting the needs of other stakeholders

Wealth creation over the long term

Balancing risk and return

Summary

Key terms

References

Further reading

Critical review questions

Part One FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING

Table of Contents

2 Measuring and reporting financial position

Introduction

The major financial statements an overview

The statement of financial position

The effect of trading transactions

Classifying assets

Classifying claims

Statement layouts

Capturing a moment in time

The role of accounting conventions

Money measurement

Valuing assets

Meeting user needs

Summary

Key terms

Reference

Further reading

Critical review questions

Exercises

3 Measuring and reporting financial performance

Introduction

The income statement

Different roles

Income statement layout

Further issues

Recognising revenue

Recognising expenses

Depreciation

Costing inventories

Trade receivables problems

Uses and usefulness of the income statement

Summary

Key terms

Further reading

Critical review questions

Table of Contents

Exercises

4 Accounting for limited companies

Introduction

The main features of limited companies

The role of the Stock Exchange

Managing a company

The UK Corporate Governance Code

Financing limited companies

Borrowings

Withdrawing equity

The main financial statements

Dividends

Additional financial statements

The directors' duty to account

The need for accounting rules

Sources of accounting rules

The auditors' role

Management commentary

Creative accounting

Summary

Key terms

Further reading

Critical review questions

Exercises

5 Measuring and reporting cash flows

Introduction

Why is cash so important?

The statement of cash flows and its relation to the other financial statements

The relationship between the financial statements

The main features of the statement of cash flows

A definition of cash and cash equivalents

The layout of the statement of cash flows

The normal direction of cash flows

Preparing the statement of cash flows

What does the statement of cash flows tell us?

Table of Contents

Summary

Key terms

Further reading

Critical review questions

Exercises

6 Analysing and interpreting financial statements

Introduction

Financial ratios

Financial ratio classifications

The need for comparison

Calculating the ratios

A brief overview

Profitability

Efficiency

Relationship between profitability and efficiency

Liquidity

Financial gearing

Investment ratios

Trend analysis

Using ratios to predict financial failure

Limitations of ratio analysis

Summary

Key terms

Further reading

Critical review questions

Exercises

Part Two MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTING

7 The relevance and behaviour of costs

Introduction

What is meant by 'cost'?

Relevant costs: opportunity and outlay costs

Cost behaviour

Fixed cost

Variable cost

Semi-fixed (semi-variable) cost

Table of Contents

Finding the break-even point

Contribution

Margin of safety

Operating gearing and its effect on operating profit

Weaknesses of break-even analysis

Using contribution to make decisions: marginal analysis

Summary

Key terms

Further reading

Critical review questions

Exercises

8 Full costing

Introduction

What is full costing?

Why do managers want to know the full cost?

Single-product businesses

Multi-product businesses

Overheads as service renderers

Activity-based costing

Using full (absorption) cost information

Summary

Key terms

Further reading

Critical review questions

Exercises

9 Budgeting

Introduction

How budgets link with strategic plans and objectives

Time horizon of plans and budgets

How budgets help managers

Budgets and forecasts

Limiting factors

How budgets link to one another

Using budgets in practice

Preparing budgets

Table of Contents

Non-financial measures in budgeting
Budgeting for control
Measuring variances from budget
Making budgetary control effective
Behavioural issues
The use of variance analysis
Summary
Key terms
Further reading
Critical review questions
Exercises

Part Three FINANCE

10 Making capital investment decisions

Introduction
The nature of investment decisions
Investment appraisal methods
Accounting rate of return (ARR)
Payback period (PP)
Net present value (NPV)
Why NPV is better
Internal rate of return (IRR)
Some practical points
Investment appraisal in practice
Investment appraisal and strategic planning
Summary
Key terms
Reference
Further reading
Critical review questions
Exercises

11 Financing a business

Introduction
The main objective of financing policy
Sources of finance
Internal sources of finance

Table of Contents

Internal sources of long-term finance
Internal sources of short-term finance
External sources of finance
External sources of long-term finance
Forms of borrowing
External sources of short-term finance
Long-term versus short-term borrowing
Gearing and the financing decision
Raising long-term finance
Share issues
The role of the Stock Exchange
The Alternative Investment Market
Providing long-term finance for the small business
Islamic finance
Summary
Keyterms
References
Further reading
Critical review questions
Exercises
12 Managing working capital
Introduction
What is working capital?
The scale of working capital
Managing inventories
Managing trade receivables
Managing cash
Managing trade payables
Managing working capital
Summary
Key terms
Further reading
Critical review questions
Exercises

Appendix A: Glossary of key terms

Table of Contents

Appendix B: Solutions to self-assessment questions

Appendix C: Solutions to critical review questions

Appendix D: Solutions to selected exercises

Appendix E: Present value table

Index

Acknowledgments

Back Cover