

ninth edition

MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS

fame, influencers and agility

 Pearson

CHRIS FILL
SARAH TURNBULL

Marketing Communications

Marketing Communications

Table of Contents

Front Cover

Half Title

Title Page

Copyright Page

Brief contents

Contents

Preface

Authors' acknowledgements

Part 1 An introduction to marketing communications

1 The scope of marketing communications

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Defining marketing communications

The engaging role of marketing communications

The tasks of marketing communications

The marketing communications mix

Marketing communications in context

Marketing communications in a customer journey context

Delivering consumer experiences

Marketing communications in an international context

Standardisation versus adaptation

Global consumer culture theory

The impact of social media in a global context

Marketing communications in a technological context

Big Data

Data management platforms

Programmatic technologies

Mobile

Consolidation and convergence

Marketing communications in an ethical context

Table of Contents

Comment

Key points

Case: From running shops to serving customers: The Tesco turnaround story

Review questions

References

2 Communication: theory, interactivity and influencers

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

A linear model of communications

Issues associated with the linear communication process

The influencer model of communications

The interactional model of communications

Dialogue

Relational approaches to communications

Word-of-mouth communications

Definition and motives

Opinion leaders

Opinion formers

Developing brands with word-of-mouth communications

Influencer marketing

Amplification

Visual communication

Brands and the use of visual communication

Adoption and diffusion

Process of diffusion

Key points

Case: Gymshark

Review questions

References

3 Understanding buyer behaviour and improving engagement

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Information processing

Attention

Perception

Learning

Table of Contents

Attitudes

Decision making

Fear, uncertainty and perceived risk

Decision-making processes

Consumer purchase decision-making processes

Organisational decision-making processes

Social selling

Ethics and decision making

Involvement theory

The influence of mobile technologies on buyer behaviour

Usage

Multitasking and layering media

Attention levels

Visual vocabulary

Chat

User-generated content

Contemporary approaches to understanding buyer behaviour

Hedonic consumption

Tribal consumption

Ethical consumption

Behavioural economics

Key points

Case: How Aldi re-energised an existing advertising concept to reignite growth

Review questions

References

4 How does marketing communications work?

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Engagement and the role of marketing communications

How does marketing communications work?

Interpretation 1: sequential models

Interpretation 2: changing attitudes

Interpretation 3: shaping relationships

Interpretation 4: developing significant value

Interpretation 5: cognitive processing

Comment

Key points

Case: Gordon's Gin: Legacy brand turned challenger - doubling the size of a legacy brand by

Table of Contents

thinking like a challenger

Review questions

References

Part 2 Managing marketing communications

5 Marketing communications: strategies and planning

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Marketing communications strategies

MC strategy interpretation 1: positioning strategies

MC strategy interpretation 2: audience strategies

MC strategy interpretation 3: platform strategies

MC strategy interpretation 4: configuration strategies

Planning marketing communications

The marketing communications planning framework (MCPF)

Elements of the plan

Context analysis

Communications objectives

Marketing communications strategy

Coordinated communications mix

Resources

Scheduling and implementation

Evaluation and control

Feedback

Integration within marketing communications plans

Key points

Case: Results & a half: how generosity paid off for Cadbury

Review questions

References

6 Marketing communications: objectives and positioning

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

The role of objectives

The role of brand communications objectives and plans

The sales school

The communications school

Practitioner-based marketing communications objectives

Table of Contents

- Business objectives
- Behavioural objectives
- Intermediate objectives
- SMART objectives
- Linking objectives to the communications strategy

Positioning

The positioning concept

Managing positions

- Perceptual mapping

Positioning strategies

- Product features
- Price/quality
- Use
- Product class dissociation
- User
- Competitor
- Benefit
- Heritage or cultural symbol

Repositioning

Key points

Case: David Sheldrick Wildlife Trust: Hello in elephant - translating an endangered language to help save an endangered species

Review questions

References

7 Branding and marketing communications

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Brand characteristics

Consumer brand relationships

The task of marketing communications in branding

- Associations and personalities
- Brand ambassadors

Building brands with marketing communications

Business-to-business branding

Branding in an interactive environment

Employee branding

- External communications

Table of Contents

Internal communications

Intellectual and emotional aspects

Brand equity

Key points

Case: Lloyds Bank: the power of Pure Brand

Review questions

References

8 Integrated marketing communications

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

The forces for IMC

What is to be integrated?

Communications tools or disciplines

Messages

Media

Touchpoints

Marketing mix

Brands and structures

Strategy

Employees

Technology

Agencies

Building IMC programmes

Interpretations of IMC

Interpretation 1: IMC as harmonisation

Interpretation 2: IMC as a perspective

Interpretation 3: IMC as a portfolio

Interpretation 4: relational IMC

Key points

Case: Baileys: from forgotten icon to global treat

Review questions

References

9 Budgeting and evaluation

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

The role of the communications budget

Benefits of budgeting

Table of Contents

Difficulties associated with budgeting for communications

Budgeting - techniques and approaches

Share of voice

Which methods are most used?

The '60:40 rule'

Budgeting for the other elements of the communications mix

The role of evaluation in planned communications

Advertising testing

Pre-testing unfinished ads

Concept testing

Pre-testing finished ads

Physiological measures

Post-testing

Enquiry tests

Recall tests

Recognition tests

Sales tests

Simulated market tests

Single-source data

Other methods of evaluation

Tracking studies

Likeability

Marketing mix modelling

Measuring online communications

Share of search

Mobile

Social media

Dashboards

Key points

Case: Audi: the value of Vorsprung durch Technik over four decades

Review questions

References

Part 3 The marketing communications mix

10 Advertising: role, forms and strategy

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Table of Contents

The role of advertising

Defining advertising

Selling propositions

The use of emotion in advertising

Types of advertising

Advertising models and concepts

- The elaboration likelihood model

- Practitioner frameworks of advertising

- The Strong and the Weak theories of advertising

Consumer-generated advertising

Interactive media advertising

- Banner ads

- Online behavioural advertising

- Pop-ups

- Video

- Bumpers

Key points

Case: Building a brand fit for the biggest decision of your life: Made in the Royal Navy

Review questions

References

11 Public relations and sponsorship

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Characteristics of public relations

Which publics?

A framework of public relations

- The press agency/publicity model

- The public information model

- The two-way asymmetric model

- The two-way symmetric model

Public relations and relationship management

Public relations: methods and techniques

Media relations

- News releases

- Multimedia usage in media relations

- Press conferences

- Interviews

Table of Contents

Events

Media catching

Corporate advertising

Reasons for the use of corporate advertising

Forms of public relations

Sponsorship

Sponsorship objectives

Theoretical aspects of sponsorship

Types of sponsorship

Sports sponsorship

Broadcast sponsorship

Arts sponsorship

Other forms of sponsorship

The role of sponsorship in the communications mix

Key points

Case: KFC: Michelin Impossible - how an Aussie underdog took on the food establishment

Review questions

References

12 Direct marketing and sales promotion

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

The role of direct marketing

The role of data

Direct-response media

Email

Mobile

The 'Internet-of-Things' (IOT)

Social

Direct mail

Door-to-door

Telemarketing

Inserts

Print

Radio and television

Sales promotion

Understanding the value of sales promotions

Table of Contents

The role of sales promotion

- Short termism
- Managerial accountability
- Brand performance
- Brand expansion
- Competition for shelf space

An overview of how sales promotions work

Sales promotions: methods and techniques

Field marketing

Key points

Case: Unlocking the value of direct-to-fan for Formula 1

Review questions

References

13 Brand: placement, experience and packaging

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Brand placement

- Characteristics of brand placement
- Placement issues

Brand experience

Exhibitions and trade shows as experiences

- Strengths
- Weaknesses
- Exhibitions as a form of marketing communications
- Multimedia and trade shows
- Managing exhibitions

Brand packaging

- The communications dimensions of packaging

Key points

Case: A Night. . . At The Louvre: how Airbnb created a magical experience

Review questions

References

14 Content: messages, credibility and creative approaches

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Message source

Table of Contents

Establishing credibility

- Credibility established by the initiator

- Credibility established by a spokesperson

Structural elements in a message

- Message balance

- Conclusion drawing

- One- and two-sided messages

- Order of presentation

Message appeals

- Information-based appeals

- Emotions- and feelings-based appeals

Advertising tactics

- Informational motives

- Transformational motives

Creativity

Creativity and attention

The importance of context

The creative process

Message framing

Storytelling

User-generated content (UGC)

- Sourcing content

Key points

Case: Whiskas K.I.T.: how cat content grew up to drive digital growth

Review questions

References

15 Media: principles, practice and formats

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Classifying the media

- Media classification - by form

- Media classification - by source

- Media classification - by function

Interactive media

- Characteristics of interactive media

- What interactive media enable users to do

- Interactive platforms and facilities

Table of Contents

- Search engine marketing
- Social media
- Social networks
- Weblogs and microblogging
- Viral marketing
- Online brand communities
- Extended reality

Linear media

- Print media
- Broadcast media
- Outdoor media
- In-store media
- Cinema

Key differences between interactive and linear media

Key points

Case: 'Should have gone to Specsavers!'

Review questions

References

16 Media planning: concepts and practices

Aims and learning objectives

Introduction

Brand building and activation media

Media planning and the media mix

Media switching behaviour

Media planning concepts

- Reach and coverage
- Frequency
- Gross rating point
- Effective frequency
- Efficiency

Media planning - from interruption to facilitation

Automation and programmatic technologies

- Programmatic planning issues
- Blockchains

Multichannel campaigns

Advertising and the media mix

Campaign media planning

Table of Contents

Pre-store

In-store

Post-store

The plan

Optimisation within channel

Monitoring and course correcting

Measurement

Key points

Case: How Soreen used its loaf to become a millennial favourite

Review questions

References

Glossary and list of useful terms

Author index

Subject index

Publisher's acknowledgements

Back Cover