

PETER HOWELLS
KEITH BAIN

Fifth Edition

FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSTITUTIONS

Financial Markets and Institutions

Visit the Financial Markets and Institutions, fifth edition Companion Website at www.pearsoned.co.uk/howells to find valuable student learning material including:

- Multiple choice questions to test your learning
- Written answer questions providing the opportunity to answer longer questions
- Annotated links to valuable sites of interest on the web

Financial Markets and Institutions

Table of Contents

Front Cover

Financial Markets and Institutions

Contents

Preface to the fifth edition

Guided tour

Acknowledgements

Terms used in equations

Chapter 1: Introduction: the financial system

Financial institutions

Financial institutions as firms

Financial institutions as intermediaries

The creation of assets and liabilities

Portfolio equilibrium

Financial markets

Types of product

The supply of financial instruments

The demand for financial instruments

Stocks and flows in financial markets

Lenders and borrowers

Saving and lending

Borrowing

Lending, borrowing and wealth

Summary

Questions for discussion

Further reading

Table of Contents

Chapter 2: The financial system and the real economy

Lending, borrowing and national income

Financial activity and the level of aggregate demand

Money and spending

Liquid assets and spending

Financial wealth and spending

The composition of aggregate demand

The financial system and resource allocation

Summary

Questions for discussion

Further reading

Chapter 3: Deposit-taking institutions

The Bank of England

The conduct of monetary policy

Banker to the commercial banking system

Banker to the government

Supervisor of the banking system

Management of the national debt

Manager of the foreign exchange reserves

Currency issue

Banks

Banks and the creation of money

Why banks create money

How banks create money

Constraints on bank lending

The demand for bank lending

The demand for money

The monetary base

Building societies

Liability management

Table of Contents

Questions for discussion

Further reading

Answers to exercises

A history of UK monetary aggregates

Chapter 4: Non-deposit-taking institutions

Insurance companies

Pension funds

Unit trusts

Investment trusts

NDTIs and the flow of funds

Summary

Questions for discussion

Further reading

Chapter 5: The money markets

The discount market

The parallel markets

The interbank market

The market for certificates of deposit

The commercial paper market

The local authority market

Repurchase agreements

The euromarkets

The significance of the parallel markets

Monetary policy and the money markets

Summary

Questions for discussion

Further reading

Answers to exercises

Chapter 6: The capital markets

Table of Contents

The importance of capital markets

Characteristics of bonds and equities

Bonds

Equities

The trading of bonds and equities

Bonds: supply, demand and price

Equities: supply, demand and price

The behaviour of security prices

Reading the financial press

Summary

Questions for discussion

Further reading

Answers to exercises

Chapter 7: Interest rates

The rate of interest

The loanable funds theory of real interest rates

Loanable funds and nominal interest rates

Problems with the loanable funds theory

Loanable funds in an uncertain economy

The liquidity preference theory of interest rates

Loanable funds and liquidity preference

The monetary authorities and the rate of interest

The structure of interest rates

The term structure of interest rates

The pure expectations theory of interest rate structure

Term premiums

Market segmentation

Preferred habitat

A summary of views on maturity substitutability

The significance of term structure theories

Table of Contents

Summary

Questions for discussion

Further reading

Answer to exercise

Answer to exercise

Chapter 8: Foreign exchange markets

The nature of forex markets

Interest rate parity

Other foreign exchange market rules

Differences in interest rates among countries the Fisher effect

The determinants of spot exchange rates purchasing power parity

Equilibrium in the forex markets

Alternative views of forex markets

Fixed exchange rate systems

Monetary union in Europe

The single currency in practice 1999/2006

The UK and the euro

Summary

Questions for discussion

Further reading

Answers to exercises

Chapter 9: Exchange rate risk, derivatives markets and speculation

Forms of exposure to exchange rate risk

Exchange rate risk management techniques

Derivatives markets

Financial futures

Options

Exotic options

Other related products

Table of Contents

Comparing different types of derivatives

- Exchange-traded versus OTC products

- Forward versus futures contracts

- Forward and futures contracts versus options

The use and abuse of derivatives

Summary

Questions for discussion

Further reading

Answers to exercises

Chapter 10: International capital markets

The world capital market

Eurocurrencies

- The growth of the eurocurrency markets

- The nature of the market

- Issues relating to eurocurrency markets

Techniques and instruments in the eurobond and euronote markets

Summary

Questions for discussion

Further reading

Answers to exercises

Chapter 11: Government borrowing and financial markets

The measurement of public deficits and debt

Financing the PSNCR

- The PSNCR and interest rates

- The sale of bonds to banks

- The sale of bonds overseas

- PSNCR, interest rates and the money supply a conclusion

Attitudes to public debt in the European Union

The public debt and open market operations

Table of Contents

Debt management and interest rate structure

Summary

Questions for discussion

Further reading

Answers to exercise

Chapter 12: Financial market failure and financial crises

Borrowing and lending problems in financial intermediation

The financing needs of firms and attempted remedies

Financial market exclusion

The financial system and long-term saving

The financial system and household indebtedness

Financial instability: bubbles and crises

Fraudulent behaviour and scandals in financial markets

The damaging effects of international markets?

Summary

Questions for discussion

Further reading

Chapter 13: The regulation of financial markets

The theory of regulation

Financial regulation in the UK

Regulatory changes in the 1980s

Supervision of the banking system

The 1998 reforms

The Financial Services Authority (FSA)

The European Union and financial regulation

Regulation of the banking industry in the EU

Regulation of the securities markets in the EU

Regulation of insurance services in the EU

The problems of globalisation and the growing complexity of derivatives markets

Table of Contents

Summary

Questions for discussion

Further reading

Appendix I: Portfolio theory

Appendix II: Present and future value tables

Index

Back Cover