

"I am very impressed with the book. The authors explain the complexities clearly and present legal material with some contextual discussion... [The] text covers a wide range of topics and represents a good introduction for non-law students."

Dr Graeme Lockwood, King's College London

FOURTH EDITION

Employment Law in Context

An Introduction for HR Professionals

Brian Willey

Adrian Murton • Enda Hannon • Susan Mison • Sanjiv Sachdev

Employment Law in Context

Employment Law in Context 4th edition e-book

Table of Contents

Cover

Employment Law in Context

Brief contents

Contents

Preface

Market for the book

Authorship

Approach to learning

Structure of each chapter

Website

Acknowledgements

Publishers acknowledgements

About the authors

Guided tour

List of abbreviations

Table of cases

Table of statutes

Table of statutory instruments

Table of statutory codes of practice

Table of European Community law

List of useful websites

An introduction to employment law

Table of Contents

Learning objectives

Structure of the chapter

Introduction

What are the purposes of voluntary and legal measures?

How does the law influence substantive issues?

How does law affect procedural issues?

Economic perspectives

Globalisation and the changing role of labour law

Is there a crisis of labour law?

Political perspectives

The free collective bargaining model

The free labour market model

The employee protection or social justice model

The current situation

The legal regulation of employment

How are legal standards set?

European Convention on Human Rights 1950

Human rights and employment law

Statutory codes of practice

How do working people enforce their rights?

Employment tribunals

Employment Appeal Tribunal

Court of Appeal

Supreme Court (formerly the House of Lords)

European Court of Justice

European Court of Human Rights

International Labour Organisation

What is the role of statutory agencies?

Advisory Conciliation and Arbitration Service

Health and Safety Executive

Equality and Human Rights Commission

Table of Contents

Low Pay Commission

Information Commissioner

Criminal Records bureau

Independent Safeguarding Authority

Central Arbitration Committee

What redress is available for infringements of rights?

The effectiveness of redress and remedies

In-house procedures

Employment tribunals

Employment consequences

What are the key principles underpinning employment law?

Substantive issues

Fairness

Reasonableness

Equal treatment

Harmonisation

Procedural issues

Natural justice

Consultation

Consent

Freedom

Conclusion

Further reading

References

Regulating the employment relationship

Learning objectives

Structure of the chapter

Introduction

The employment relationship

Means of regulating the employment relationship

Context

Table of Contents

Concepts of work and employment

The psychological contract

The growing diversity of employment status

The legal framework

Employment status

Common law tests

Personal service and substitution

Continuity of service

Contracts

Case study 2.1

The characteristics of the contract of employment

A flawed instrument

Defining the contract of employment

Contractual terms: express and implied

Express terms

Implied terms

Activity 2.1 Your contract of employment

Sources of contractual terms

Management decisions on terms and conditions of employment

Collective agreements between an employer and recognised trade unions

Workplace rules

Custom and practice

Statute law

Implied terms under common law

General duties on employers

To pay wages

Not to make unauthorised deductions

To take reasonable care of the employee

Not to breach mutual trust and confidence

General duties on employees

To co-operate with their employer

Table of Contents

To obey lawful and reasonable instructions

To be trustworthy

Duty to take reasonable care

Probationary periods and contracts

Whistleblowing

Qualifying disclosure

Protected disclosure

Detrimental treatment and dismissal

Employment tribunal applications

Breach of contract

What is a fundamental or repudiatory breach of contract?

Termination of a contract of employment

Subsistence of a contract

Employment protection for atypical workers

Part-time workers

Fixed-term contract workers

Casual and zero-hours contract workers

Relevant legislation and casual workers

homeworking

Agency workers

Case study 2.2

Activity 2.2 Atypical workers in your organisation

Complaints relating to employment contracts

Conclusion

References

Managing change in the employment relationship

Learning objectives

Structure of the chapter

Introduction

Context

Table of Contents

Organisational culture

Strategic considerations

Operational factors

The economic context

Incidence of redundancies

Socio-economic and political context of business transfers

Tensions between business need and legal standards

Activity 3.1 The employment consequences of organisational change

The legal framework

Flexibility within the contract of employment

Variation of contract

Exercise 3.1 Contract variation

Case study 3.1

Redundancy and redeployment

Transfers of undertakings

Exercise 3.2 Managing redundancies

Case study 3.2

Conclusion

Case study 3.3

Exercise 3.3 Managing transfers

References

The context of discrimination at work

Learning objectives

Structure of the chapter

Introduction

General concepts in equal opportunities

Discrimination

Equal opportunities and equal treatment

Managing diversity

Institutional discrimination

Positive action and positive discrimination

Table of Contents

Language and political correctness

The social and economic context of discrimination

An overall view

The incidence of discrimination at work

Sex discrimination: the context

The historic situation of women

Changing perspectives

Participation in the labour market

Prevailing economic conditions

Dependency

Occupational segregation

Segregation and education

Womens pay and the gender pay gap

Social and economic factors

Race discrimination: the context

Britains ethnic diversity

Concepts

Historic labour market experience

Taking legislative action

Labour market participation today

Disability discrimination: the context

Defining disability

Models of disability

Social context

Historical perspective

Employment context of the 1995 Act

Labour market participation

Age discrimination: the context

The concept of ageism

The incidence of ageism

The drivers of legislation

Table of Contents

Older workers in the labour market

Sexual orientation discrimination: the context

Historic legal prohibitions

Social attitudes

Developments in legislation

The quality of employment relations

Discrimination because of religion and belief: the context

Incidence of religion/belief

Social tensions and religion

Other beliefs

Incidence of discrimination/attitudes to religion or belief

The state of the law

What progress and what problems?

Grounds of discrimination

Implementing public-sector equality duties

Covert discrimination

Positive action

Compound discrimination

Monitoring

Weak enforcement

Conclusion

References

Equality law and the workplace

Learning objectives

Structure of the chapter

Introduction

EU directives

Transposition into UK law

Previous case law and the Equality Act 2010

The language of equality law

Statutory codes of practice

Table of Contents

Other related legislation

The Equality and human Rights Commission

Equality Act 2010

Protected characteristics

Public sector equality duty

Who is covered?

Prohibited conduct

Direct discrimination

Combined discrimination: dual characteristics

Indirect discrimination

The justification of indirect discrimination

Occupational requirements

Positive action

Instructing

Discriminatory advertisements

Aiding unlawful acts

Enforcement

Liability and vicarious liability

Statutory questionnaire

Burden of proof

Complaints to an employment tribunal

Victimisation

Remedies

Protected characteristics, legal issues and case law

Age

Employment Equality Framework Directive 2000 and age discrimination

Evaluating the 2006 Age Regulations

Equality Act (2010)

Direct age discrimination

Objective justification and age discrimination

Objective justification and case law

British government and the Default Retirement Age (DRA)

Table of Contents

Age discrimination and redundancy selection and payments

Age discrimination and market considerations

Cost considerations

Seniority and length of service

National minimum wage

Age discrimination: Conclusions

Case study 5.1

Disability

The protected characteristic of disability

Defining disability

The protected characteristic summarised

Employers knowledge of disability

Direct discrimination

Associative and perceived discrimination

Duty to make adjustments

Discrimination arising from disability

Enquiries about disability and health in recruitment

Indirect discrimination

Discriminatory adverts

Case study 5.2

Gender reassignment

Marriage and civil partnership

Pregnancy and maternity

Race

Racial group

More than one cause

Indirect discrimination

Religion or belief

What is religion and belief?

Discrimination

Occupational requirements

Table of Contents

Case study 5.3

Sex

Indirect discrimination

Sexual orientation

Conclusion

Exercises

References

Implementing equality in the workplace

Learning objectives

Structure of the chapter

Introduction

Legal standards

Business case

Social justice

Human resource strategy

Establishing a strategic approach

Equal opportunities policies

Evidence of a strategic approach

A long way to go?

Recruitment and selection

Advertising and recruitment targets

Criteria of person specifications and job descriptions

Application forms

Selection process

Interview process

Testing

Training of recruiters

Contract of employment

Pay and benefits

Gender

Table of Contents

Age and length of service

Disability

Working time issues

Sex discrimination

Disability discrimination

Religion or belief discrimination

Age discrimination

Training and development

Employees

Management development

Possible policy measures

Promotion

Harassment

Dress and appearance

Dismissal

Post employment

Conclusion

References

Harassment and bullying at work

Learning objectives

Structure of the chapter

Introduction

Why the growing concern about harassment?

How harassment and bullying are defined

Contextual issues

The incidence of harassment and bullying

The characteristics of perpetrators

The recipients response

Exercise 7.1 Harassment in the City

The legal framework

Table of Contents

The contract of employment

- Employers duties

- Employees duties

- Harassment and bullying outside of discrimination law

Discrimination law

- Background

- Equality Act 2010

- Protected characteristics

- Who is covered?

- The general prohibition

- Patterns of behaviour

- Third party harassment

- Liability for harassment

- Case study 7.1

- Defence against liability

- Combining contract and equality law

- Burden of proof

- Victimisation

- Redress and remedies

- Case study 7.2

The Protection from Harassment Act 1997

- Introduction

Conclusion

Exercises

References

Discipline and dismissal

- Learning objectives

- Structure of the chapter

- Introduction

- Historic redress

- Legislation on unfair dismissal

Table of Contents

The ACAS Code of Practice

Approach and aim of disciplinary action

Disciplinary rules

Acting reasonably

Disciplinary penalties

Statutory protection from unfair dismissal

Who qualifies?

Is there a dismissal in law?

Reasons for dismissal

Reasonableness in the circumstances

The range of reasonableness responses test

Fair procedure

Statement of reasons for dismissal

The statutory right to be accompanied

Obtaining redress for unfair dismissal at an employment tribunal

Does the complainant qualify?

When must a complaint be made?

What is the role of ACAS in these tribunal complaints?

What is a compromise agreement?

What issues concern an employment tribunal in making its decision?

What remedies are available to successful complainants?

Dismissal complaints and other grounds/causes of action

Relationship with wrongful dismissal claims

Case study 8.1

Case study 8.2

Grievances and disciplinary action

Grievance raised in the course of disciplinary action

Constructive dismissal

General guidance about grievances

Conclusion

Exercises

Table of Contents

References

Wages and equal pay

Learning objectives

Structure of the chapter

Introduction

The context

Economic issues

The importance of pay to employees

The importance of pay to employers

Public policy: free markets and regulation

Social welfare factors

Social policy

The legal framework

Definitions

Regulating the wagework bargain under common law

Statutory regulation of unauthorised deductions

Cash shortages and deficiencies in retail employment

Overpayment

Case study 9.1

The National Minimum Wage Act 1998; NMW Regulations 1999

Coverage

The national minimum wage and employers

Calculating hourly rates

Collective agreements and contractual terms

Enforcement of the national minimum wage: civil proceedings

Enforcement of the national minimum wage: criminal action

Detriments and dismissal and the NMW

Equal pay and the law

The Equal Pay Act 1970 and European law

What is pay?

Indirect pay discrimination

Table of Contents

Employers defences

Pay transparency

Employment tribunal claims

Remedies in equal pay cases

Case study 9.2

Employment policies and practices

Contracts of employment and collective agreements

Special agreements

Information and records

Exercises

References

Regulation of working time

Learning objectives

Structure of the chapter

Introduction

The context

Introduction

Voluntary regulation

A long hours culture?

Social issues

Economic considerations

The effects on work performance

Costs of compliance

The legal framework

Piecemeal legal regulation

Specific occupations

Sex discrimination law

Disability discrimination

Breach of contract

The Working Time Regulations 1998

Table of Contents

Who is covered?

Definition of working time

Rest breaks and rest periods

Shift work and night work

Paid annual leave

Case study 10.1

Case study 10.2

Maximum working week

The individual opt-out

Unmeasured working time

Derogations

Collective and workforce agreements

Enforcement

Are the Working Time Regulations working?

Impact of the regulations

Areas of uncertainty

The 48-hour maximum working week

Holidays

Night work

Collective and workforce agreements

Employment policies and practices

A strategic approach to implementation

Exploring the impact on organisations of the Working Time Regulations

Exercises:

References

Family leave and worklife balance

Learning objectives

Structure of the chapter

Introduction

Factors underpinning the growing interest in worklife balance

Defining worklife balance

Table of Contents

Legislation

European law

British law

Relationship with contract of employment

Scope of statutory protection

Family rights and sex discrimination

Case study 11.1

Employment policy and practice

Maternity leave

Paternity leave

Parental leave

Dependency leave

Awareness and use of the right to request flexible working

Flexible working practices

Degrees of success with flexible working and worklife balance

Critical perspectives on the legislation

Conclusion

Exercises

References

Health, safety and welfare at work

Learning objectives

Structure of the chapter

Introduction

The concepts

health

Safety

Welfare

Legal framework

An initial broad overview

Common law

Table of Contents

Tort of negligence

Repudiatory breach of contract

Liability and vicarious liability

Common law

An employers defences

Statute law

Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974

What is the role of regulations?

The Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999

Activity 12.1 Assessing risks

The machinery for enforcing health and safety standards

Protection against detriments and unfair dismissal

Remedies and redress for detriments and dismissal

Health and Safety Executive and inspectors

What are the roles of the HSE?

What are the powers of the HSE?

Corporate Manslaughter and Corporate homicide Act 2007

Key provisions of the 2007 Act

Penalties

The Fatal Accidents Act 1976

Employment policies and practices

Managing health and safety

Handling particular workplace risks

Work-related stress

Personal injury claims

Conclusion

Exercises

Further reading

References

Conclusion

Table of Contents

Introduction

What are legal standards for in relation to employment?

The balance of economic power

Standards of public policy

Ethical standards

Minimum standards

In whose interests are legal standards enacted, implemented and amended?

The right to manage

Employer economic interests

Survey evidence

The current state of employment and equality law

Conservative Liberal Democrat government ideological objectives and principles

Equality law

The promotion of labour market flexibility

Specific categories of workers

Requesting flexible working

Dispute resolution reform

Mediation and conciliation

The employment tribunal process

Unfair dismissal qualifying period

Fees etc.

Health and safety regulation

Enforcement of individual rights

Access to statutory rights

Managing individual complaints

Conclusion

References

Appendix: Feedback on exercises

Table of Contents

Glossary

Index